ENTREPRENEURSHIP EDUCATION FOR MIGRANT
WOMEN IN FASHION

ENTREP FASHION project focuses on empowering migrant women who face particular challenges in accessing entrepreneurial opportunities in the fashion industry.

We create a specialized curricular for migrant women and vocational trainers to integrate essential concepts into teaching for future-oriented vocational education and career planning.

Our projects main goal is

Supporting migrant women with entrepreneurial education to enable their participation in the sustainable fashion industry.

Main Target Group

- Young migrant women aged 18-40 facing social & economic challenges, eager to start fashion businesses in AT, GRC, BGR, regardless of their migrant generation.
- VET educators in enhancing their skills in understanding cultural diversity, managing diverse classrooms, and adopting environmentally-friendly, socially-conscious, and economically sustainable practices.
