Changing Trends of UPSC Mains GS 2

- More Analytical and Multidimensional: Questions have become complex, testing deeper understanding rather than rote learning. They often have multiple layers.
- Governance and Policy Focus: There is a strong emphasis on governance challenges, policy analysis, public administration reforms, and effective implementation of schemes.
- Constitutional and Legal References: Questions frequently require citing relevant constitutional provisions, Supreme Court judgments, and laws.
- Ethics and Accountability: Increased focus on ethics, transparency, accountability, and e-governance, reflecting governance priorities.
- Social Justice Issues: Welfare schemes, rights of marginalized groups, and social justice topics are frequently tested.
- International Relations: More questions on global geopolitics, India's foreign policy, and its role in multilateral forums.
- Case Studies and Scenario-Based: The paper now includes case studies demanding practical application of governance concepts.
- Integration with Current Affairs: Aspirants must blend current events with foundational polity concepts for well-rounded answers.
- Interlinking Topics: Effective answers interconnect governance, polity, social issues, and international relations.
