Submission Guidelines

Embedded Intelligence Journal (EIJ)

Last Updated: April 2025

The Embedded Intelligence Journal (EIJ) welcomes high-quality research articles, review papers, and case studies in the field of embedded systems, intelligent technologies, IoT, AI applications in embedded systems, and related domains. Please read the following guidelines carefully before submitting your manuscript.

1. Manuscript Categories

We accept the following types of submissions:

- Research Articles – Original studies presenting new findings.
 - Review Papers – Comprehensive surveys on recent advancements.
 - Case Studies – Practical applications of embedded intelligence.
 - Technical Notes – Brief reports on innovative techniques or emerging trends.

2. Formatting Guidelines

2.1. Manuscript Structure

All submissions should include the following sections:

1. Title Page

- Title of the manuscript (concise & informative)
- Author(s) full name(s) and affiliation(s)
- Corresponding author's email and ORCID ID (if available)

2. Abstract (150–250 words)

- Brief summary of the research, highlighting key findings and contributions.

3. Keywords (4–6 keywords)

- Select relevant keywords for indexing.

4. Introduction

- Background, significance, and objectives of the study.

5. Methodology

- Detailed description of materials, methods, and tools used in the research.

6. Results & Discussion

- Presentation and interpretation of findings.

7. Conclusion

- Summary of findings and future research directions.

8. References

- Follow IEEE or APA citation format.

2.2. Formatting Requirements

- File Format: Submit manuscripts in DOCX or LaTeX (ZIP format including .tex and figures).
 - Font: Times New Roman, 12pt, 1.5 line spacing.
 - Page Limit: Maximum 20 pages (including figures and references).
 - Figures & Tables: Must be numbered and labeled with appropriate captions.

3. Submission Process

1. Manuscript Preparation

- Ensure the paper follows formatting and structure guidelines.

2. Plagiarism Check

- Papers must be original and not published or under review elsewhere.
- The similarity index should be below 15% (checked via Turnitin or iThenticate).

3. Online Submission

- Submit via email at submissions@technomerazsolutions.in

4. Peer Review Process

- Manuscripts undergo double-blind peer review (reviewers do not know authors' identities).
- The process takes 4-6 weeks from submission to decision.

5. Decision Notification

- Authors will receive one of the following decisions:
 - Accepted – Minor revisions may be required.
 - Accepted with Revisions – Revise and resubmit.
 - Rejected – The manuscript does not meet EIJ standards.

6. Publication

- Accepted papers are published open-access in the next available issue.

4. Ethical Guidelines

- Manuscripts must not contain fabricated or manipulated data.
- Proper credit must be given to prior research through appropriate citations.
- Authors must disclose any conflicts of interest.
- Research involving humans or animals must follow ethical guidelines (IRB approval if applicable).

5. Article Processing Charges (APC)

- Standard Publication Fee: $5 or 250 INR per accepted paper.
- Waivers: Available for authors from developing countries or students upon request.
