Old Business:

Mike M. stated that in June we may possibly have the kids group attend a meet at the field for some flight instruction with a buddy box and setting up a simulator.

The club charter and insurance was received.

Mike M. stated that the club will be attending the River of Time event in September, more info will be coming soon.

New Business:

The Valley Aero Club will be having the Dawn patrol/pancake breakfast this year and the club has committed to helping with the event. Volunteers will help set up the tables and we will also have an area to setup our plane display and banner. Volunteer's will need to be at the airport on June 19th at 6:30am. We have discussed bringing a few simulators and having paper airplanes.

We have decided that April 30th will be the official day to open the field.

New Classifieds:
