MEETING MINUTES

Meeting was moved to a nearby member's basement due to inclement weather.
Meeting called to order at 6:15PM by President Mike Massey

Motion to accept July meeting minutes was carried

Treasurer's report – 27 paid members
June income – 3 member dues paid – 1 upgrade
June expenses – $61.45 tractor oil / weed killer / oil filter

July income – 3 member dues
July expenses - $45.00 outhouse servicing
Current balance - $2024.70

Safety report – 1 airplane lost control, no injuries

Web report – All good

Board report – No meeting

Old business –
Labor day picnic, same as Memorial day start around 10AM lunch at noon.
Mower maintenance was discussed again, please be sure to check the oil before and after and clean the top and bottom of the deck.

New business –
A lookout tower for the corn was proposed. An estimate for materials will be prepared. Will be discussed with landowner.
The July 4th picnic had a great turnout, hot dogs on the grill and dishes were passed and the weather cooperated.
We have had several new folks join the club recently, Dennis, Carl from the Midland club, Shazad's son and Rich H.

We did a flight check on Bill Rueff tonight and he is cleared to fly. We stressed to him that it is better to fly at the field with another person for safety purposes.

Show and tell –

-Mike M. Flite Test P-40

-Pat D. Das Ugly Stick V2 from Hobby King
