Board report – No board meeting

Old Business: Rolling of the field has been done, a big thank you to Karl for the use of the roller.

The new mowing schedule was sent out to paid members and a copy of it is available in the shed.

There was a correction for the Dawn Patrol at James Clements airport. The date is June 18th from 7-12.

IAC event will still need volunteers. July 7-9th.

Eric's ashes were spread over the field on Memorial day during our annual picnic.

New Business:

1. Volunteers will be needed to distribute flyers for the Dawn Patrol / pancake breakfast.
2. John P. has suggested that if we have another estate sale, that it only be held for one day.
3. Pete asked why the club did not have any events planned for the year.
4. Mike M. stated that there is an electric fuel pump to fill the mower in the shed. A solar battery charger/maintainer for the mower is also in the shed.
5. Gary asked if we could shorten the length of the grass we cut on the field. It does appear that the amount of grass we have been cutting is getting longer. Mike M. stated that he will check into it.
6. John P and John W will take the rest of Eric's planes and acces. To Flite Fest and try to sell as much as possible. What is left will be brought back and distributed to the club at a later date.
7. Motion to adjourn was made.Meeting adjourned at 6:48 pm
