Safety report – None for this month

Web report – Things are running smoothly, all previous newsletters have been uploaded.

Board report – No board meeting

Old Business: The River of Time event went well, both Mike M. and Mike Y. were out both days. Our club has been invited back again for next year however it may be at a different venue.

The power washing and sealing of the flight stands and picnic table were completed.

Incorporation papers were received and will be filed.

New Business:

1. The closing of the field will happen at the end of October.
2. There is a swap meet in Northville on November 6th, it is usually a good turnout. A few of us will be having several tables to sell some items.
3. A mowing schedule was discussed for the 2023 season and will come out in the spring.
4. The 2022 holiday dinner was discussed and will happen at Berger's possibly on December 10th. Eric will check for us.
