Old Business: Mike M has spoken to James Clements airport personnel about having our club events there for next year, still no word back yet.

Mike M asked Karl about how well the Midland club's last float fly turned out. He stated they had around 20 planes show up.

New Business:

Mike M had copies of the incorporation papers for the club.

The closing of the field was discussed and was decided to not have a set date but rather a group text sent out.

Karl stated that the Midland club will have their first snow fly on the first Saturday in January.

There will be a swap meet on November 2nd in Northville MI.

Motion to adjourn was made at 6:30 pm
