When was Chocolate invented?

Chocolate was invented thousands of years ago by ancient civilizations in Central America who used cacao beans to make a special drink. The Mayans and Aztecs believed cacao was very important and often used it in ceremonies. It wasn't until much later that chocolate became the sweet candy we enjoy today!

Imagine You Are an Explorer!

- Write or draw what happens when you discover the first chocolate tree.
- What does it look like?
- How do you feel when you taste the first chocolate?
- What do you do with this new discovery?
