

SMELL DESCENT

PARTNER INTRODUCTION

“People will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel.”

- Maya Angelou

WHAT IS SMELL DESCENT

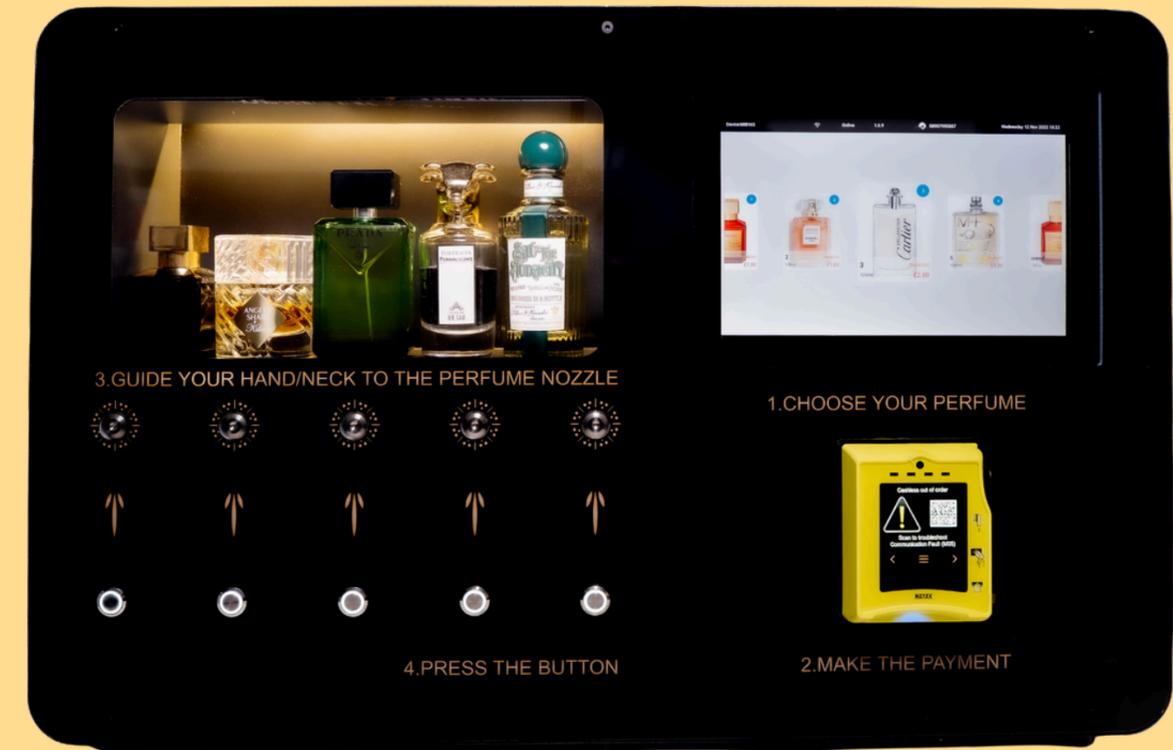

Smell Descent is a modern fragrance dispenser that gives people a quick, touch-free spray of fine perfume when they want to feel fresh, confident, and cared for.

Imagine walking out of a gym, stepping off a long train, or taking a break in a shopping centre one mist, and you feel instantly renewed.

Our goal is simple: To bring a small moment of calm and confidence to everyday spaces.

We believe scent isn't just something you wear.

It's something you experience, and when it's done right, it changes how you feel.

WHY CUSTOMERS LOVE IT

Smell Descent helps you create that memory one mist at a time.

When people visit your venue, they notice everything: the light, the sound, the feeling in the air.

Smell Descent adds something invisible, but unforgettable.

A fresh mist before they leave the gym. A refined fragrance before an important meeting. A small, elegant gesture that tells them, you've thought about how they feel.

They might not remember the décor, the playlist, or even the colour of the walls, but they'll remember that quiet lift of confidence, that moment of care.

THE STORY

We've been there more times than we like to admit. That small moment of doubt before stepping into a room (or coming out of the loo). It's not vanity; it's about wanting to feel ready, confident, and composed.

That's where the idea for Smell Descent was born, from the thought that a quick spray of a fine fragrance could change how someone feels about themselves in an instant.

We wanted to create something elegant, discreet, and practical. A modern way to offer people that quiet boost of confidence when they need it most.

We've all had those moments of uncertainty. Smell Descent exists to turn them into moments of calm assurance.

THE EXPERIENCE

In the Office

Before an important meeting, an employee stops by the restroom to refresh. One quick mist of their chosen scent, discreet, touch-free, effortless. They step into the room feeling composed, polished, and ready to represent their brand.

In the Gym

After a workout and shower, members want to leave feeling as good as they look. Smell Descent provides that finishing touch, a light spray of premium fragrance that adds freshness without fuss. It's the small detail that makes the gym feel truly high-end.

In the Shopping Centre

A shopper takes a short break between stores. A moment at the Smell Descent station offers a clean, uplifting fragrance: a quick reset before they continue their day.

Across every environment, Smell Descent adds a consistent layer of care and confidence helping people feel their best wherever they are.
