FULL TITLE:

PAN-AFRICAN DOSSIER OF PEOPLE'S TRUTH™

Testimonies, Evidence, and Crimes Against the Collective Conscience of the People of Equatorial Guinea and the African Continent

MISSION OF THE DOSSIER:

This document exists to expose, consolidate, and protect the Collective Truth in the face of structural and systematic crimes committed against the people of Equatorial Guinea and African peoples — with particular focus on the repressive machinery operated under the codename S.O.R.A™ (System of Oppression and Repression in Africa), based in Equatorial Guinea.

S.O.R.A™ is a symbiotic network of repression:

a combination of state apparatus, institutional mafia, privileged family networks, and complicit foreign structures.

This dossier does not request justice. It declares it.

DETAILED OPERATIONAL STRUCTURE

1. INTRODUCTION: THE RIGHT TO KNOW

Where silence is normalized, memory becomes resistance.

Where lies are institutionalized, truth becomes revolution.

This Dossier represents:

- A legal and moral act of ethical disobedience.
- A living instrument of historical and spiritual restoration.
- A tool for the collective Pan-African awakening.

We proclaim that every people has the irreversible right to:

- Know the truth about their suffering.
- Remember with dignity what others tried to bury.
- Activate consequences in favor of life, without asking for external authorization.

2. 👁 SECTION I: DOCUMENTED CRIMES

▼ A. UNDECLARED HOMICIDES AND EXECUTIONS

- Physical elimination of family members, moral leaders, and inconvenient figures.
- Confirmed assassination attempts.
- Systematic persecution through surveillance, psychological warfare, and threats.
- Murders disguised as accidents.
- Silent genocide through deliberate state abandonment of vulnerable populations.

These were not errors: they were premeditated acts of selective extermination.

▼ B. ILLEGAL IMPRISONMENT OF INNOCENTS

- Detention without fair trial.
- Fabrication of charges, disappearance of legal records, politically dictated sentencing.
- Torture in prisons: physical, sensory, psychological.
- Use of the penal system as a weapon of mass intimidation.

▼ C. PSYCHOLOGICAL PERSECUTION & ECONOMIC DESTRUCTION

- Targeted financial blockade of the people and welfare-oriented initiatives.
- Business sabotage, asset confiscation, banking interference.
- Public shaming, emotional discredit campaigns, domestic surveillance.
- Planned social exclusion and economic isolation of allies.

▼ D. FAMILY DESTRUCTION & FORCED EXILE

- Institutional isolation of conscious figures.
- Induced fracturing of families via state manipulation.
- Living conditions designed to expel through exhaustion.
- Symbolic and real exile of future generations.

What bullets couldn't kill, they tried to erase through fear and silence.

3. SECTION II: NETWORKS OF COVER-UP

A. COMPROMISED INSTITUTIONS

- All branches of the Failed State: converted into enforcement arms of repression masked as legality.
- Armed Forces and National Police: tools for intimidation and silencing.
- Ministries: instruments of symbolic erasure and public inaction.
- Complicit foreign embassies.

❄️ B. ECONOMIC & FAMILY ALLIANCES

- Political-family clans monopolizing contracts, real estate, and public resources.
- Identified individuals linked to systemic corruption and repression.
- Ties with global networks: corporations, banks, tax havens.

📦 C. NATIONAL CODE OF SILENCE

- Threat culture, forced informants, institutionalized fear.
- Official narratives manipulated.
- Ritualized fear: political witchcraft and symbolic control.
- Ethical leaders slandered as “enemies of the state.”
