

Email tarot readings

Geography is irrelevant with the tarot and a reading can help you address challenges around money, career, relationships...any aspect of life that needs attention.

An email tarot reading can:

- Offer new perspectives on challenges
- Illuminate blind spots in your thinking/approach
- Validate what you already know in your heart of hearts
- Challenge you to act in ways that serve your best and highest good
- Inspire and motivate you to take action to transform your life
- Offer guidance for a path forward
- Help you reconnect with your deepest, purest Self

Your personalized tarot reading is an 8-12-page document that will include:

- An illustrated timeline on the history and evolution of tarot
- Which tarot deck I used for your reading & why
- Which spread I used & why
- A photo of your spread
- High-level overview of your spread highlighting recurring themes and card connections
- Extensive individual card interpretations & contextual analysis of your entire spread
- Embedded reference links for deeper dives on key aspects
- A summary of key takeaways
- A bonus oracle card pull for a final, parting thought

Why have an email reading?

- You get a professionally designed PDF you can refer to whenever you want
- As an ad copywriter for nearly 30 years, I've honed a casual, engaging writing style that's clear, easy to understand, and highly readable
- Unlike a live reading, you won't have to try to remember everything that came through
- Key information, nuances, and connections are always right there to see
- It's fun and easy to share with family and friends

How it works

- Just email me to start the ball rolling: mike@DesertTarot.com
- I will send you guidance on how to ask an effective question
- After I receive payment and verify your question, I do your reading
- I deliver your reading as a PDF within a few days

All readings are confidential. I do not discuss your reading with anyone.
