

Auditory

Hypo-responsive

- Seems to be unaware of sounds
- Holds radio speakers up against ears
- Doesn't respond to alarms
- Makes silly sounds at inappropriate times or frequently
- Mimics sounds of others
- Talks to self
- Difficulty locating sounds, especially when in a noisy environment
- Hums in order to hear the sound of humming

Hyper-responsive

- Startles easily to unexpected sounds
- Dislikes noisy places
- Overly sensitive to speakers on radios
- Fearful of smoke detectors, overhead speakers
- Shushes others or asks others to stop talking
- Holds hands over ears
- Sensitive to certain sounds such as lawnmowers or the hum of the refrigerator
- Easily distracted by sounds and background noise
- Hums to block out background noise