Tropical Rock. Super Dynamic. Sweaty Floor
Crowd Connection. Great Songs. Joyful Fun.

Bio

For 50,000 years or more, humans have gathered to bang on drums, sing together, and reach an altered state that heals and connects us.

In the pursuit of this ceremony, The Boom Booms have honed their skills over nearly 20 years.

Folk, Reggae, Rock, Latin, African, Funk and more influences give dancers a buffet of grooves to gorge on. By the end of the show, the crowd will be jumping side to side in unison be hush quiet down on the floor before roaring back to life.

The songs, though often delving into deeper themes, all resoundingly land on a hopeful, uplifting note.

Childhood friends from East Vancouver, the band formed in 2008 in between tree-planting contracts. They began throwing block parties and then left on a 6 month hippie-bus, book-as-you-go tour from Vancouver to Brazil. They later busked around Europe before 'getting serious'. Success in the Peak Radio Band Competition brought them radio play and recognition that jump started their career and soon the calendar was full of festivals, and then US tours.

They continued throwing block parties, and even a festival, devoting their time to the environmental movement, and even made a documentary in Brazil which highlighted Indigenous people's struggle against the Belo Monte Dam.

Now, well into their "grown-ass-man" chapter, the pan is fully seasoned and with the spark of (near) sobriety, they are tigher and fresher than ever, which is evident on their latest single "Miracle Man", an arena-folk song with world rhythms (think Coldplay meets Merengue) that has been getting an incredible reaction from crowds.

TESTIMONIALS

“I <3 to Boom Boom so much that I have been to see them live at least 30 times since 2012.

I have seen them play a small pub with a crowd of 100 and larger crowds in the 1000s, and I can confirm that the experience is amazing either way. The energy of the band, the music and the crowd is infectious and you'll leave as part of a beautiful family who connect through the grooves and can't wait to meet again on the dance floor.

No bad times can be had at a Boom Booms show. Trust me, I'm an expert.”

“Feel-good music, soaked in classic soul and served on a 21-century platter.”
- BeatRoute Magazine

“I'm a festival coordinator, band manager and huge fan of music. Your live show was one of the most fun shows I've ever been to. You had every last person with their feet in the sand at Ness Creek at Your beck and call two summers ago. Never seen anything like that - I think about it often and it always brings a smile to my face.”

Lindsay B

“This band is amazing to watch live ! It seems imbued with a Divine Feminine Energy that is so nuanced, Subtle yet hard to ignore.”
