5.2 Limitation of Liability:

- The coach and organisers of the rugby programme are covered by professional indemnity insurance for negligent advice and coaching. However, they are not liable for any injuries resulting from the negligent actions of other participants during training or matches.

5.3 Insurance Coverage:

- All participants must be registered with the Rugby Football Union (RFU) through the RFU's Game Management System (GMS), which provides personal accident insurance coverage for injuries sustained during rugby activities.

5.4 Personal Injury Responsibility:

- It is the responsibility of the participant or their parent/guardian to ensure they have adequate personal accident insurance for any additional coverage beyond that provided by the RFU's GMS system.

5.5 Waiver of Claims:

- By signing this agreement, the participant (or their parent/guardian) agrees to release and hold harmless the coach, organisers, and any associated staff or volunteers from any claims, demands, or causes of action arising from personal injury or property damage, except in cases of proven gross negligence or intentional misconduct by the coach or organisers.

6. Conduct and Behaviour

- Player Conduct:
 - The player is expected to conduct themselves in a respectful, positive, and responsible manner during all sessions, whether in-person or online. Disruptive, disrespectful, or inappropriate behaviour may result in termination of the player's participation in the programme.
