

Angel of Openness

24 Elders,

Resistance to influences / Receptivity to the divine.

To be an Essene, learn to be receptive and to resist influences with sound judgment.

Open yourself and consciously receive the influences that emanate from the higher angelic intelligences.

Open yourself to the virtues of the Angels and let them act within you, permeate you, enrich you, and come to dwell within you.

In the face of darkness, deceit, and counter-virtues, learn to close the doors and resist with strength and determination.

Do not let yourself be overrun, much less influenced by what is perverse and degrading.

Know that you are never alone, but that influences are omnipresent.

Do not resist what is divine, but welcome it into your consciousness and let it work upon you.

Do not welcome the dark; do not allow it to enter your sphere of existence and influence you in any way.
