

Activating the divine placenta

The extracts of this text come from the book: Giving Birth to the Light, published by Essenia Editions

In 2006, Archangel Gabriel transmitted a message of capital importance for all beings who wish to work to build a body for the Light on the earth:

“Through the Cult that will be celebrated within the Nation and through the pure Alliance 2 in Light, I shall stand at the center of the placenta in a divine and magical permanence. Then the water of life that bathes each Essene and that unites you into one single earth, one single people and one single religion will be ceaselessly renewed by my source, by my being, by my sacred mysteries and by the Teaching that you will study, that you will practice and that you will transmit through the generations. It is this pure, living and intelligent water that will lead you on the path of resurrection and of life.

This placenta is the treasure of Light of your Nation and you must take care of it as of your eyes, for it is my blessing, my protection, my presence with you. It is the original substance through which all becomes possible. This is what the sages have known as the magical power that had to be the living soul, the true Religion.

In the water of this placenta bathe the thoughts, the states of soul, the wishes of humans and it is thus that their future is written.

I, I shall stand in the midst like an almond at the heart of the fruit, similar to the eye that illumines and opens the space allowing access to a higher world.

Each Essene who has become conscious will be able to participate in this great mystery of childbearing by becoming similar to a woman who carries within herself the placenta of a new life. This ovule transformed into placenta is the people of awakened souls, it is the community of love that assembles around the mysteries of my source, of my temple, of my Cult to give birth to a new body capable of incarnating the true Light on the earth.

“To meet” means “to protect.” Each citizen of the Essene Nation must cultivate this consciousness, this sensitivity, this will of a mother who meets the mystery in her womb and who wants to protect it and give it a body. To draw near to me is to meet God. To meet God is to want to protect His eye as if this eye were one’s own source of existence.”

The law of universal magic and of the placenta

Gabriel is the Father-Mother of childbearing and of birth, for he is the placenta of life. It is he who directs all the intelligences, influences and forces at work toward birth. The body of man is a condensate of influences that manifest themselves to engender other influences and to give birth to another body.

Man spends his life meeting beings, circumstances, influences and cannot remain insensitive. He is permanently in a movement of energy, a sphere of living matter, a placenta inside which he is formed despite himself. Upon this placenta act all kinds of influences that come from the cosmos, from the sphere of men or from nature.

Every man is necessarily influenced by the beings, the things, the circumstances that he meets. The being who awakens his consciousness and walks on a path of Light must know and meditate this law of universal magic and of the placenta, which allows birth and rebirth. You were born and you will be reborn. In the meantime, you prepare the new body, whether it be of darkness or of Light.

Magic is the science of influences, the art of mobilizing intelligences and forces. It is independent of man, for it is it that sets the laws in motion and makes them act. Man possesses within himself the power to activate magic, but he can also be activated by it.

Magic is universal; it is it that allows and directs birth in all the worlds, for it organizes the placenta of life. The being who studies the laws and the secrets of magical art must awaken his consciousness in absolute purity through all his *organs and all his senses in order to recover the power of magic that is within him and that belongs to him before destiny. If man abandons his power, other intelligences and influences seize it, for his salvation or his loss.

The secret of sacred priesthood: knowing how to master one's creative power

Archangel Gabriel speaks to us of our creative power:

“You do not eat only on the physical plane the nourishment that the Mother and the tradition of men prepare for you; you also nourish yourself in the world of water, of the auric, of magic through thoughts, states of soul, will, desires, acts, relations, associations, perceptions. In all these activities, there are nutrients. They enter into the constitution of your framework of life, which is your placenta, and participate in the elaboration of your body and of your destiny.

All day long, you are a creator within the water that bathes you and bathes the worlds. You breathe, you attract and repel intelligences, influences, you are in activity, you move, look, listen, speak, will... Through all these expressions of life, worlds organize themselves and live with you.

Without cease you bring forth creative influences that act through several spheres and in numerous domains. In fact, organ after organ, they build for you a body, a destiny.

Whether you are conscious of it or not, you have an intense activity, you are a creator. You conclude associations with worlds, intelligences, wills and you maintain them, incarnate ideas and spread influences. You are a creator of life.”

Gabriel 129:12-15

It is through acts that the presence of consciousness must live, for an act is an influence set in motion and possessing a power of fecundation over the placenta of life. Thus the bodies are elaborated, receptacles of influences.

An act accomplished by a being who is not truly conscious of his power will not have the result that he expects, even if his act is magical. On the other hand, the one who bears all his attention, his concentration upon the potential act that he bears inside himself, in the subtle spheres of his being, becomes powerful on the earth. This is the secret of magic and of sacred priesthood.

An Essene priest is a servant of the divine world. He knows and applies the laws of the Tradition and is protected from tempting influences by the Teaching and the direction of eternal wisdom. He inscribes himself in a tradition that bears the Alliance of the Eternal on the earth and in humanity from century to century. It is a framework offering a blessing, an orientation, a protection, a destiny. It is a placenta opening a path and determining the future by the creation of a determined body.

The 12 pillars of the School of Archangel Gabriel are the guardians and the animators of this divine placenta, of this sacred and pure matrix that takes root in the Round of the Archangels. The 12 pillars are the protectors of the family of the Angels on the earth.

The work of the Essenes: realizing the Villages as a divine placenta

The Essenes engaged as bearers of Angell have as goal and duty to make the Angels live in the world of men and of the Mother by offering themselves as living earth for the rooting and the fructification of the Light. Thus, goodness, harmony, peace, intelligence... can live on the earth and manifest there in the midst of men in truth, magic, mutual support.

The Round of the Archangels finds its accomplishment in the concretization of the Essene Villages. It is their structure of Light, just as the 12 bearers of Gabriel's necklace are the structure of Light, the etheric body of the Round of the Archangels.

Thus, the role of the Essenes is to realize the Villages as a Holy Land, a divine placenta in which they can live according to their Tradition and activate the cults of the Angels, of the Archangels and of the Gods. It is a divine work, an incarnation of the *Word, the creation of a body, of a vehicle for the Light. From this must be born a tradition, a culture, a new way of being in the world.

The beings who aspire to create this new world are invited to meditate each seed of this wisdom.

An Essene draws his strength from the symbols of his Tradition. He is himself a tree that unites heaven and earth. The temple of Father Gabriel, the Circle of the 12, the Round of the Archangels, the Essene Villages are living and eternal symbols that have been activated on the earth in our epoch by a group of beings who are awakening. Through all this structure is activated the divine placenta, the true matrix of the Light.
