

Psalms of Archangel Michael

272 The Circle of Sages or Circle of parents.

1. Man comes on earth as a child. He is welcomed and develops. No man is born on earth while being alone. Every being is received by parents, a family, a community, a universe.
2. To become an adult means to reach one's full potential, to be a free, conscious, responsible individuality.
3. The other stage is to become a parent. A parent is a superior adult who is not anymore only responsible for himself, but also for a world that he has brought forth.
4. Man can be a parent by bringing a child into the world, or else a work, in the spiritual and physical worlds.
5. A parent is in charge of carrying a world and has the obligation to succeed. He cannot resign and give up. That is why he has to be aware of his responsibility; he must be animated by wisdom and stable on earth.
6. One who was not born from the earth, who has not been educated in the wisdom of the Mother cannot be and must not be a parent because he will be a weathervane that will act and make decisions only according to the influences, the atmospheres, the fashion, the desires, the trend of the moment. Such parents are dangerous and unhealthy because they lead their children, through a bad education, to be in illusions, in pretending. Their children will not be born from the earth, but from the water and from the astrality that bathe the worlds and lead them to the pursuit of fantasies devoid of consistency.
7. A parent must be stable, educated, awakened, conscious, fixed in permanent wisdom and seek to lead his child towards an education that draws its foundations in the tradition of the earth and its immutable laws. Education should never be directed towards what is volatile, ephemeral, instinctive.
8. A child is a being in becoming who needs parents to identify himself, capture reliable criteria and acquire a direction to build a body and a life for himself.
9. You, the Essenes, I would like you to realize that you are responsible for a tradition, for a nation, for an earth, for a religion and therefore for a birth of God. In this way you are parents and your duty is to assemble in a circle in order to take care of this Child, to welcome Him, to lead Him into success.

10. Most parents who resign do not accept their flaws and reject the responsibility for their failure on others, even on their children.
11. Education is fundamental and it must be good. A bad education leads towards the great whatever, which is the opposite of perfection.
12. How do you want a child to properly do what he was not educated for and that the parents were unable to achieve or to put in place?
13. It is first of all up to the parents to lead the way and set the example.
14. Children should be educated and it is the responsibility of the parents to transmit the right education.
15. The wisdom of ages, the right way of walking on the earth, of listening, of looking, of speaking, of performing the right gesture, of having the right attitude, consciousness and behaviour are passed from the parent to the child. In this way, gradually, the wisdom of one becomes the light of the other, and happiness grows on earth.
16. Often it is not wisdom that parents pass on to their children, but rather their failures, their fears, their abdications, their mediocrities; and moreover, they make them responsible, proclaiming that they are only children and that they do not know how to do things.
17. A real adult, an honourable parent will not weaken the children by making them carry the weight of his own lack of commitment and consciousness.
18. That is why, at the time when you are about to form the circle of sages, which is essentially a circle of parents, I want to put things in order: the children are children and they can only learn, develop. There is no question of putting any responsibility on their backs since they are only children. It is the parents who must assume all the responsibility because they wanted to bring forth a world, and they must not only take charge of their personal life of adults and parents, but also the function of educating their children, of leading them, of bringing them towards the attitude of becoming adults and parents.

Olivier Manitarra then asked Archangel Michael:

Father Michael, men are not parents, as you say. They say they are, they pretend to be, but they are not since they decline all responsibility. What do we do when we are educated and governed by children who say they are parents?

Archangel Michael answered:

19. Lying, illusion are the great problem of humanity. Man says things, he pretends them, and he believes in them. He is content to believe and does not go so far as to be. Believing is easier. From believing to lying, there is only one step, which is easy to cross. Man likes seeming more than what he is. You must understand that you are what you do, what you give to the other.

20. If you give your children a good education, based on intelligence and freedom, it means that you are good parents.
21. If children are ill-mannered, they will be unhappy with life, with their education, with what they are told to do, they will go into a revolt, a contradiction and will refuse the world that is offered to them. In this way the parent will meet failure.
22. A parent must take care of the child as much as himself, or even more.
23. The role of the parent is to guide, to direct, to form the body and the being who is going to be born from the body and from the soul.
24. The great problem of humanity today is that men are not born from the earth, but from the water, charged with all the astral influences. In this way the man to be born is totally fecundated, filled, caught, bewitched by the spiritual worlds of water and he directs his desires, his concepts and his life according to influences that act on him. It is these influences, devoid of wisdom, that shape his life and educate him.
25. This world of water is the world of man. Some will say it is negative. I tell you no. It is just the world of man, there is no problem; simply, you must not mix the worlds.
26. If the world of man is mixed with the higher worlds, a false spirituality appears and finally, everything is doomed to failure. In this way the children are badly educated because they do not receive a stable foundation from heaven and earth.
27. Man is an antenna on earth that must capture the pure influences of a heaven alive from an eternal and immortal intelligence.
28. If there is no longer a heaven and an earth, but everything is mixed up in a world of influences that do not mean anything anymore, the antenna of the child picks up the whatever and he makes his life with it.
29. A parent is a heaven and an earth for the antenna of a child. If this heaven and this earth are not good, the child builds himself with bad elements.
30. Any creative force that becomes an influence in the environment of humanity must be born from earth and heaven.
31. Heaven and earth have their laws, their forces, their stability.
32. From earth the bodies appear and from heaven the intelligences come.
33. Everything that is volatile, instinctive, that only lasts a time, like a fashion, a belief, comes from the world of water and of man. All that belongs to the kingdom of death and of recycling.
34. This world of water is the great reservoir of all the thoughts, of all the dreams, the aspirations, the memories of men. If man is a good parent, he populates this reservoir with good influences in order to bring forth a good, just, true, wise and great world.

35. The circle of sages in the heart of the Essene Nation invites you to become good parents on earth. You must take care of your own children as well as all the children of the earth and of God. You must, through this circle, give birth to God, make God appear. These are your tradition, your function, your destiny.
36. To join this circle of parents is to be like God; it is the highest that man can attain as evolution. Indeed, we call God: the Father and the Mother.
37. God is the Parent who has opened a path of wisdom to man, and man too must become a parent in order to be responsible and put God into the world by offering Him all the conditions so that He fulfils Himself as an adult, then as a Parent, who in turn will bring forth the world of tomorrow and all the tomorrows.
38. I ask all the Essenes who are preparing to join the circle of parents, all the priests, the priestesses, the leaders, the persons in charge of the body of God in incarnation to think like parents, like sages, like stable, valiant, conquering beings, like builders on earth so that God finds a body, a solid, firm, confident, reassuring support.
