10 TIPS FOR WRITING AN EFFECTIVE EMAIL

1

WRITE A MEANINGFUL SUBJECT LINE

Take a moment to write a subject line that accurately describes the content, giving your recipient a solid reason to open your message. A vague or blank subject line is a missed opportunity to inform or persuade your recipient.

7 REASONS WHY YOUR BUSINESS NEEDS A WEBSITE (Even if social media is free)

3

Improves the Credibility of Your Brand

Having a business website makes your business more credible and professional. We live in a digital world, and it is a common notion to think that if you have a website for your business, your company is real and isn't deceiving people. Well-structured content on your website makes you appear as an expert online.
