ABOUT QUICK NUCLEAR SOLUTIONS

Quick Nuclear Solutions is a boutique regulatory consulting firm founded by Andrea Jones, a former Senior Licensing Officer with 34+ years at the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC). We provide expert regulatory strategy, export/import licensing support, and nuclear nonproliferation advisory services to commercial nuclear operators, advanced reactor developers, and government stakeholders. We bridge the gap between complex engineering requirements and federal compliance standards — ensuring your projects move from application to authorization without administrative delay.
