

More Than Private✈

DALEX X

dalex.com

*Since our launch,
DALE X has been dedicated to redefining
the art of private travel.*

What began as a vision for seamless, world-class aviation has evolved into a global standard in private jet and helicopter chartering.

Today, DALE X oversees a distinguished fleet operating across key regions worldwide, delivering thousands of flight hours with an unwavering commitment to precision, discretion, and safety. Every journey is orchestrated by seasoned experts who manage everything—from flight planning and regulatory navigation to maintenance and elite-level crewing—with effortless perfection.

As a Dale X client, you gain access to a curated global network of premium partners, exclusive terminals, and priority support teams across major aviation hubs. Wherever in the world you need to be, our specialists ensure a smooth, secure, and meticulously managed experience.

From complex operations and remote environments to high-security routes and sensitive airspace, DALE X handles every detail with masterful control—so you can simply relax, enjoy the journey, and experience flight in its most refined form.

Exclusivity Designed Around Your Life

No two clients are the same.

At DALE X, we blend deep aviation expertise with a nuanced understanding of your preferences to curate a fully bespoke suite of aircraft management and private travel services.

As your needs evolve, we evolve with you — guided by absolute trust, discretion, and transparency.

Grounded in excellence, heritage, and an unwavering commitment to service, we ensure your aircraft ownership and travel experience remain seamless, secure, cost-efficient, and exceptionally comfortable.
