

Consulting Support for ISO 9001 Implementation

Prepared by B&R Certification | www.brcertification.com

While B&R Certification does not provide consulting services, we understand that some clients may need support preparing for certification. This document offers guidance on working with ISO 9001 consultants while maintaining compliance with ISO/IEC 17021 impartiality requirements.

Why Work with a Consultant?

- Help develop or refine your Quality Management System (QMS)
- Provide training and internal audit services
- Assist with documentation and gap assessments
- Guide you through ISO 9001:2015 requirements and readiness

Important Notice

To maintain impartiality and compliance with ISO/IEC 17021, B&R Certification does not provide consulting services and does not have any formal partnerships with consultants. Clients are free to choose any consultant they prefer. We do not receive commissions or referrals from consulting firms.

Finding a Qualified Consultant

- ASQ (American Society for Quality) Consultant Directory:
<https://asq.org/consultant-directory>
- Exemplar Global Certified Professionals Directory:
<https://exemplarglobal.org>
- LinkedIn or Local Business Networks:
Search for 'ISO 9001 Consultant' and filter by location and experience.

Tips When Choosing a Consultant

- Look for ISO 9001:2015 experience and references
- Ensure they do not promise certification — only support
- Make sure they understand your industry
- Ask about their internal audit capabilities and success stories