- Venue: OSHC Auditorium, Agham Road, Quezon City, Philippines
- Format: Hybrid Conference with Interactive Workshops, Exhibits, Cocktails,
Awards Ceremony and Mini-Concert

Conference Overview:

The QESSH Management Summit 2026 is an international, multi-disciplinary conference designed to bring together leaders, practitioners, and decision-makers across Quality, Environment, Security, Safety & Health (QESSH) and Human Resources to explore how integrated management systems drive resilience, sustainability, and business excellence.

Grounded in real-world experience and informed by global best practices, the Summit goes beyond theory—focusing on practical, implementable solutions that organizations can immediately apply.

What Makes This Conference Different? Why Is the QESSH Summit Unique?

Unlike traditional single-discipline conferences, the QESSH Management Summit 2026 is intentionally designed as a convergence platform, offering participants a holistic and systems-based perspective.

This conference delivers:

- True Integration

A unified platform for professionals in Quality, Environment, Security, Safety & Health, and Human Resources, recognizing that operational excellence happens at the intersections—not in silos.

- End-to-End Supply Chain Perspectives

Balanced insights from employers, suppliers, contractors, customers, regulators, and service providers, showcasing how QESSH systems are applied in world-class organizations across industries.

- Global and Local Expertise

Real-life case studies and lessons learned from the Philippines, North America (Canada), Oceania (New Zealand), and the Middle East (Qatar), contextualized for local application.

- Action-Oriented Learning

Practical frameworks, tools, and strategies participants can use to design, enhance, and continuously improve their QESSH management systems.

- Future-Focused Solutions

Exploration of emerging approaches, including ESG integration, digitalization, cybersecurity, and AI/GenAI applications in QESSH.

- Engaging and Experiential Format

Interactive activities and learning games designed to create a relaxed yet high-impact learning environment, encouraging collaboration, reflection, and meaningful networking.
