Payment for services relates solely to advisory and support services and does not influence, guarantee, or affect admissions decisions, scholarships, or any other third-party decisions.

Available payment methods: PayU, PayPal, bank transfer, Wise / international money transfer.

6. No Guarantee Clause

UnivArtis makes no guarantees, express or implied, regarding:

- Admission to any university, conservatory, or academic program
- Acceptance or response by any professor or institution
- Award of scholarships, grants, or financial aid
- Visa or immigration approvals
- Academic or professional success

All such outcomes depend exclusively on decisions of independent third parties beyond UnivArtis' control.

7. User Obligations and Prohibited Conduct

By using the platform, you agree to:

- Provide accurate and truthful information
- Use the platform solely for lawful purposes
- Respect the intellectual property rights of UnivArtis and third parties
- Not upload harmful, offensive, or unlawful content
- Not attempt to circumvent platform security or access unauthorized data
- Not use the platform to spam, harass, or engage in fraudulent activity

8. Intellectual Property

All content on the UnivArtis platform is the property of UnivArtis or its licensors and is protected by applicable intellectual property laws. Users retain ownership of their own uploaded materials (recordings, CVs, portfolios). By uploading content, users grant UnivArtis a limited, non-exclusive, revocable license to use such content solely for service delivery purposes.

9. Data Protection & Privacy

UnivArtis processes personal data in accordance with GDPR and applicable international data protection laws. Please refer to the UnivArtis Privacy Policy at www.univartis.com/privacy-policy. Student materials are private by default and shared only with authorized parties based on explicit user consent.

10. External Parties and Third-Party Decisions

UnivArtis is not responsible for decisions, actions, policies, or conduct of:

- Universities or conservatories
- Music professors or selection committees
- Scholarship providers or foundations
- Immigration or government authorities
- Payment service providers (PayU, PayPal, Wise)

11. Limitation of Liability

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, UnivArtis shall not be liable for any indirect, incidental, consequential, special, or punitive damages, loss of data, revenue, or profits arising from use or inability to use the platform, or decisions of third-party institutions, professors, or authorities.

Nothing in these Terms limits liability for fraud, gross negligence, willful misconduct, or any other liability that cannot be excluded by law. EU consumers' mandatory statutory rights are not affected.

12. Governing Law and Dispute Resolution

European Union users

These Terms are governed by the law of Poland. Any disputes shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the competent courts in Kraków, Poland, unless mandatory EU consumer protection law provides otherwise. EU consumers retain the right to use EU online dispute resolution mechanisms (<https://ec.europa.eu/consumers/odr>).

United States users

These Terms are governed by the laws of the State of Oklahoma, USA. Disputes shall be resolved in the competent courts of Oklahoma County, Oklahoma.

13. Modifications to Terms

UnivArtis reserves the right to update or modify these Terms at any time. Material changes will be communicated by posting on the website or by email at least 14 days before they take effect. Continued use of the platform after changes take effect constitutes acceptance of the revised Terms.

14. Termination

UnivArtis may suspend or terminate your access to the platform at any time if you breach these Terms or applicable law. Upon termination, your right to use the platform ceases immediately.
