I am writing to recommend Lucia Sánchez Cuesta for a position within your organisation. As the Chairman of Youth Europa, an organisation dedicated to enhancing youth education through international exchanges and training courses, I have had the privilege of working with Lucia for over two years on five large-scale international projects.

Lucia has worked with us as a graphic designer and has consistently demonstrated excellent understanding and execution of project requirements. Her ability to quickly understand project goals and produce high-quality, visually appealing work has made her an invaluable member of our team.

During a project that required significant changes at a late stage, Lucia handled the situation with professionalism and adaptability, updating the designs to meet the new requirements effectively. Her contributions significantly enhanced the final outcome, showcasing her strong design skills and attention to detail.

Lucia is an effective communicator and collaborator, always ready to offer creative ideas and feedback that enhance project quality. Her commitment and proactive approach in complex situations have proven her to be a reliable and skilled professional.

I am confident that Lucia's skills and dedication will make her a valuable asset to your team. She is well-prepared to contribute creatively and effectively in a dynamic work environment.
