

Wavell-Cody Badminton Club Guide for Visitors

Welcome to Wavell-Cody Badminton Club. This guide is intended to ease your visit by explaining the practices of the club as they relate to visitors.

1. Before attending, you (or an existing club member) should contact the club secretary through the club website to notify us of your attendance.
2. For insurance purposes, please give your full name and contact details to the secretary (or another committee member if the secretary is not available).
3. Visitors are allowed to visit 4 times. After 4 visits, if you would like to join and you have demonstrated reasonable ability or potential and if space for membership allows, we may be able to offer you the opportunity to join.
4. The fee for visitors is £5.00 for each visit, payable on the evening attended.
5. Minimum age 16.
6. The first visit is free of charge.
7. As a visitor, you will not be responsible for selecting games. However, if your name is at the top of the board the member directly below you will choose you for the next game.
8. After your fourth visit, if you decide you would like to join, the committee, at their discretion, would offer you a membership place if available.
9. If membership is full then you could take up a temporary membership (if available) or go onto a waiting list.
10. The club requests that visitors wear suitable sports wear and appropriate indoor sports shoes.
11. Fees are payable every six months - currently £60.00. Paid by standing order .
12. Courtesy and respect should be shown to each other on and off court at all times.
