Getting Started: The Process

The most important part of this package is that you are in control, if this is something you feel is not right for your event or business, then no problem.

If you do feel that this will be of benefit.

1. Confirm Your Booking: This package is activated immediately upon confirmation of your event or regular business space booking.
2. Provide Your Assets: We will reach out to request high-resolution images, your event or business description, and relevant links (website, social media).

If you do not have a flyer/poster, this is something we can support with

3. Review & Launch: We will draft the content for the various channels, schedule the posts, and get your promotion underway!

We look forward to collaborating with you and supporting the success of your business or event.
