The Krab: A Clawfully True Tale of Rebellion, Romance, and Roux 🌿

Brought to you by Cobb & Co. – where history has claws.

It all began in 1861. Freeman Cobb, the mutton-chopped entrepreneur with the charm of a fox terrier and the ambition of a gold miner, set off into the dusty unknown with four American horses, one Concord coach, and a wild dream called Cobb & Co.

Legend says he left Melbourne with nothing but a map, a moustache, and a bottle of Worcestershire sauce.

Fast forward 164 years (give or take a few seafood platters), and that spirit of fearless frontiering burst back onto the scene in the form of...
The Krab.

Yes. The Krab – a steamy, spicy, finger-licking seafood boil stuffed inside a Cobb & Co. like a crustacean inside a croissant. Born in 2025 in Rotorua, it wasn't so much opened as unleashed.

"It's a picnic," they say.
