Better FOOD,
From INDIA

ABOUT US:

At Inicio Impex, we believe food is more than a product — it's an experience of culture, trust, and quality. With a strong foundation in international trade, we specialize in delivering the goodness of Indian produce from farm-fresh fruits and vegetables, frozen produce, ready-to-eat meals, Indian origin craft chocolates, processed purees and pulps to millets, peanuts and turmeric across global markets. Our offerings ensure consistency, safety, and global compliance standards at every stage and our range is designed to simplify large-scale cooking without compromising on quality. With our commitment to clean, natural ingredients—free from artificial colors, preservatives, and additives, we deliver consistently perfected products across continents.

Our strength lies in quality sourcing, robust supply chain networks, and customer-centric service. Whether catering to retail shelves or the HoReCa industry, Inicio Impex is committed to providing products that are not only delicious and reliable but also tailored to meet the diverse needs of international buyers.

Driven by innovation, sustainability, and a passion for excellence, we are proud to bring India's culinary heritage to the world — one shipment at a time.

Amata Jute Tea

Made from real jute leaves and simple spices — no caffeine, no preservatives, no artificial colors or additives. Just clean, functional tea for everyday wellness.

Each blend is designed to fit into modern routines — quick to brew, easy to enjoy, and built for real benefits. Honoring the age-old wisdom that recognized jute's benefits while innovating its form into delightful teas that suit contemporary, health-conscious lifestyles.
