ART EDUCATING & RELATED EXPERIENCE

Pottery Teacher and Resident Liaison (temporary) | Driving Creek, Coromandel, New Zealand 2026

Established and facilitates drop-in handbuilding classes of up to 20 students.

Primary point of contact between resident artists and Driving Creek, supporting communication, coordination, and day-to-day needs throughout the residency period.

English Language Assistant | CEIP Parque Nueva Granada, Spain 2025

Promoted English language learning through cultural exchange. Assisted in-classroom learning and lesson preparation for children aged 4-12.

Kiln Assistant (volunteer) | Hawai'i Craftsmen

Assisted drop-in raku firings for the community following their Raku Ho'olaule'a (celebration of raku) event

Community Pottery Tutor | Honolulu, Hawai'i 2024

Taught paid and donation-based pottery in a workshop series called Make Pottery O'ahu held in public spaces and galleries. These one-off workshops were for beginners around the island with the goal of providing as many people as possible access to the ceramic arts.

Pottery Tutor (Wheel-throwing) | Driving Creek, Coromandel, New Zealand 2023

Established and instructed the initial 8-week pottery courses at Driving Creek Potteries, focusing on wheel-throwing but integrating hand-building, glazing, wood-fired workshops and guest visits from resident artists.

Instructed classes in various skill levels and facilitated drawing classes for children.

Art Educator and Booking Administrator | Connect the Dots, Auckland, New Zealand 2022

Facilitated creative programmes with aged people and people living with dementia in the Auckland region. Instructed in-home workshops to individuals living in rest home care, assisting participants in generating their own creative work and providing an inclusive space that encouraged participants to reflect on and interpret works of art.

Managed bookings, records and enquiries.

Pottery Tutor | New Zealand School of Art and Fashion, Auckland, New Zealand 2020-2021 Supervised and instructed 10-13 week pottery hobby courses for complete beginners.
