The story of OLÉ Mexican Foods exemplifies the American Dream. With tradition passed down by her grandmother from her native México, Veronica Moreno began selling home-made corn tortillas in her Atlanta neighborhood in 1988. As a result of her unique vision and commitment to quality, word soon spread about her tortillas being the freshest, softest and best tasting in town.

Currently, OLÉ Mexican Foods is one of the largest tortilla manufacturers in America, with products sold from coast to coast. We offer a wide range of authentic Mexican products beyond the traditional tortilla, including chorizos, cheeses and good-for-you products.

Veronica's enduring commitment to quality and family has never changed. The Moreno family continues to run the company guided by their promise of delivering high quality products. It is this commitment that we hope to share with you each time you make OLÉ Mexican foods a part of your own traditions.
