

Benvindo Ricardo Tambuila

serves as Marketing, Operations and IT Systems Manager

Mr. Tambuila, is Continental Capital Connect's Marketing, Operations, and IT Systems Manager, has over two decades of expertise in IT systems, logistics, and customer service. He combines technical expertise and operational knowledge to ensure smooth operations. His career demonstrates adaptability, problem-solving abilities, and a strong commitment to providing successful solutions.

2006-2009: Began working as a Merchant for Freight Forwarding and Logistics, researching supply chain coordination and product movement methods.

From 2009 -2024, he worked as an IT Specialist for System Integration, where he provided inbound and outbound customer support for a number of IT issues.

Mr. Tambuila's dedication to excellence and ability to leverage technology for organizational success make him an essential component of Continental Capital Connect's operations.

