

EBWS-Constitution

Part 1 – Legal Name

1.1 The legal name of the society is:

- Elder Bloom Wellness Society

Part 2 – Society Purpose

2.1 The purposes of the society are:

- To operate a nonprofit wellness and therapeutic day centre that supports older adults in Kamloops and surrounding communities.
- To provide inclusive, accessible programming that supports emotional, physical, cognitive, and social well-being of seniors, including those living with illness, disability, or isolation.
- To support aging in place by offering assistance with activities of daily living (ADLs), nutritious meals, and caregiver respite.
- To promote dignity, purpose, and connection among older adults through community- based therapeutic recreation, health education, and holistic wellness services.
- To work collaboratively with local organizations, caregivers, and health professionals to improve quality of life for seniors.
- To advocate for equitable access to wellness supports for aging populations.

Part 3 – Dissolution

3.1 Upon dissolution:

- Upon Dissolution of the society, any assets remaining after paying all debts and liabilities shall be distributed to one or more Canadian registered charities having similar purposes.