

1 – LESSON #8: Noah learns about the flood Genesis 5:32 to 6:1-22

SKIT: Topic: Genesis 5:32 to 6:22

Narrator #1: Some good things and some terrifying things happened to Noah around the time he turned 500.

Narrator #2: Three of the good things that happened was that Noah's wife gave birth to three sons: Shem, Ham, and Japheth [ja-fuhth].

God

Father God: Noah, you have found favor in my sight. Just like your great grandfather Enoch, I declare that you are a righteous man. I will reward you for being blameless, innocent, and guilt-free.

Narrator #1: Wow! That must have made Noah feel very happy to know his good words and actions pleased Father God.

Narrator #2: Then Father God said something puzzling and so scary that the little hairs must have raised on Noah's arms. His heart must have beat extra fast in fear.

God

Father God: Noah, my people have allowed the devil to tempt them into doing nothing but sin. Only you are free of blame. As for the rest, they are deserving of my wrath.

Narrator #1: Noah might have stuttered as he said, "Oh-oh-oh, no! Th-th-that is awful! Wh-wh-what is going to happen?"

2 – LESSON #8: Noah learns about the flood Genesis 5:32 to 6:1-22

Narrator #2: Full of sorrow, Father God softly said:

God

Father God: Noah, I regret that I created human beings. They have spiraled out of control into nothing but wickedness.

Narrator #1: Hearing this, Noah might have found tears pooling in his eyes. His legs might have even felt so weak that he fell to his knees when Father God stated:

God

Father God: I will wipe from the face of the earth the human race I have created—and with them the animals, the birds, and the creatures that move along the ground—for I regret that I have made them.

Narrator #2: Fearfully, Noah might have said, "Father God, I thought you were going to reward me. But instead, it sounds like you are going to destroy me and my family."

God

Father God: Be at peace, Noah! You and your family will be safe. As for the rest, I am going to put an end to every single one of these violent and corrupt people.

Narrator #1: Oh, no! How was Father God planning to destroy them? Just listen to what Father God says next:

God

Father God: Noah, I will give you 100 years to build a giant boat called an ark. You will need this because a massive flood will cover the entire earth.

3 – LESSON #8: Noah learns about the flood Genesis 5:32 to 6:1-22

Narrator #2: Noah might have been very confused since he had never witnessed anything like that before.

Narrator #1: Noah might have said: "Father God, other than an inch or two of rain we get on stormy days, I have trouble picturing a giant flood."

Narrator #2: Noah might have reminded himself that Father God could do anything.

Narrator #1: So, Noah declared, "Of course, I know all things are possible to the one who created the entire earth and everything in it."

Narrator #2: Then, Noah might have said, "Uh, ..., Father God, you know I have never built a boat before? How will I do it? "

God

Father God: Don't worry, Noah! I will tell you everything you need to know about how to make it big and safe enough to house you, your wife, your three sons, the women they marry, and a male and female of every kind of animal.

Narrator #1: In the fall of 2024, you probably saw videos of the floods that swept away houses, buildings, cars, trucks, people, and animals in Western North Carolina.

Narrator #2: Now multiply that horrible flood by a thousand.

4 – LESSON #8: Noah learns about the flood Genesis 5:32 to 6:1-22

Narrator #1: When Noah turned 600, the flood would be so deep that it would cover the tallest trees and the highest mountains.

Narrator #2: That was the terrifying fate that would happen to all those who refused to follow God's directions.

Narrator #1: Sadly, these people allowed the devil to tempt them into saying and doing nothing but wicked sins.

Narrator #2: Noah might have tried to get them to repent and change their wicked ways.

Narrator #1: But obviously, that did not happen.

Narrator #2: Next week, we will hear about this massive flood that covered the earth when our long-ago Grandpa Noah was 600 years old.
