

Prayer to Break Lukewarm Christianity

Scripture Foundation

Revelation 3:15–16

“Because thou art lukewarm... I will spue thee out of my mouth.”

Matthew 6:24

“No man can serve two masters.”

Instruction

Pray this if you have been spiritually passive, divided, or inconsistent in your devotion.

The Prayer

Lord Jesus,

I refuse to remain lukewarm.

Forgive me for half-hearted obedience. Forgive me for treating You as optional instead of Lord. Forgive me for blending truth with compromise.

I repent for spiritual laziness. I repent for apathy. I repent for wanting comfort more than conviction.

Set my heart on fire for righteousness. Remove double-mindedness. Remove fear of man. Remove the desire to fit in with culture at the cost of truth.

Teach me to deny myself daily. Strengthen me to take up my cross and follow You fully.

I do not want a form of godliness without power. I do not want religion without surrender. I want a life that honors You in private and in public.

Awaken discipline in me. Awaken hunger for Scripture. Awaken boldness to stand firm.

I choose wholehearted devotion.

In the name of Jesus Christ,
Amen.

Closing Declaration

I reject spiritual passivity.

I live fully surrendered to Jesus Christ.

My faith is active, obedient, and alive.
