

Jenesia Biographies of Differing Lengths

44 word Bio

JENESIA is a pop duo from Spruce Grove, AB that combines vintage and modern musicality to create catchy, emotion-evoking songs and memorable live shows. Powerhouse vocalist Jenesa Dawn and innovative guitarist Alexander David use their music as a platform to inspire others toward justice.

84 Word Bio

JENESIA is an Edmonton pop duo that combines vintage and modern musicality to create catchy, emotion-evoking songs and memorable live shows. Powerhouse vocalist Jenesa Dawn and innovative guitarist Alexander David use their music as a platform to inspire others toward justice. After surviving nearly a decade of childhood sexual abuse, Alexander David aims to bring awareness to the growing epidemic. These award-winning emerging songwriters, with over 750 live performances under their belt, have given their lives to the pursuit of a lasting music career.

150 word Bio

Music is their vessel, message is what drives them. Jenesia is quickly becoming one of the most emotion-evoking, story-telling pop groups to ever rise out of Western Canada. Their pop musicality is coloured by soulful blues guitar and a hint of jazz. Combining elements of rock and folk, their diverse influences range from John Mayer, Amy Winehouse, Bruno Mars to The Civil Wars. Since forming in 2015, Jenesia has played over 750 live shows across Western Canada. Their seasoned stage presence shines through their captivating studio recordings. The passion goes far beyond making hit songs: Jenesia writes to encourage and inspire others towards justice. After surviving nearly a decade of childhood sexual abuse, Jenesia's Alexander David aims to bring awareness to the growing epidemic. Their catchy melodies and skillful musical instrumentation make them the voice for voiceless. Jenesia is the pop group that the world needs to hear.

150+ word Bio

JENESIA is an Edmonton-based pop duo that combines vintage and modern musicality to create catchy, emotion-evoking songs and memorable live shows. Their pop musicality is coloured by soulful blues guitar and a hint of jazz. Jenesia has played over 750 live shows including two Western Canadian tours, an appearance on national television in Toronto and showcases in Nashville, TN. These award-winning songwriters have been finalists in the John Lennon Songwriting Contest, L.A. Top Voice, Music City Songstar and were nominated for a GMA and multiple Edmonton Music Awards. The group has received national airplay and their single, Mexico, had its world premiere on the Strombo Show, received over 750,000 streams on Spotify alone and made 106.5 Mountain FM's Top 60 songs for 2018. The music video garnered 125,000+ video views online. Catchy melodies, paired with an important story of surviving childhood abuse, make Jenesia an authentic voice in pop music.

232 Word Bio

Music is their soap box, message is what drives them. JENESIA is an Edmonton-based pop act that combines vintage and modern musicality to create catchy, emotion-evoking songs and memorable live shows. Powerhouse vocalist Jenesa Dawn and innovative guitarist Alexander David use their music as a platform to inspire others toward justice. After surviving nearly a decade of childhood sexual abuse, Alexander David aims to bring awareness to the growing epidemic. These award-winning emerging songwriters, with over 750 live performances under their belt, have given their lives to the pursuit of a lasting music career. Jenesia has done two Western Canadian tours, an appearance on national television in Toronto and showcases in Nashville, TN. Jenesia took first place in the My United Way Voice Contest 2018 and were finalists in the John Lennon Songwriting Contest, L.A. Top Voice, Music City SongStar as well as being nominated for a GMA and multiple Edmonton Music Awards. Jenesia opened for Canadian Reggae-Fusion band, MAGIC!, and were chosen to perform at Hollywood's Terry Crews Keynote held at the Edmonton Convention Centre. The group has received national airplay and their single, Mexico, had its world premiere on the Strombo Show and has received over 750,000 streams on Spotify alone. Their Mexico music video garnered 125,000+ video views online. Catchy melodies, memorable live shows and a unique story make Jenesia an authentic voice in pop music.

300+ Word Bio (More story focussed than achievement focussed)

Between Jenesa's sultry knockdown vocals, Alexander's mastery of strings and their talent for evocative harmonies, Jenesia is a must see. A powerhouse of musical talent, they are skilled at evoking emotion and connecting to their audience. Masters of genre-blending music, they offer a combination of jazz, blues, folk, and rock in their modern-meets-vintage pop musicality. Their sound is as unique as their influences are diverse, encompassing such artists as John Mayer, Amy Winehouse, Bruno Mars and The Civil Wars. Recognized for their compelling story-driven and intelligent lyrics, they stand out from the current musical climate. In addition to upbeat and romantic melodies, they offer songs that tackle such difficult issues as poverty, addiction, child sexual abuse, and domestic violence with a tact and authenticity that doesn't overwhelm. Drawing on personal experience they use their music as a platform for awareness and justice, endeavoring to become a voice for the voiceless. Jenesia truly has an innate gift for transforming tragedy into something beautiful.

Breaking ground as Soap Box Duo in 2015 the then newlyweds, released their first self-titled album, garnering multiple award nominations and performance opportunities. They have gone on to make numerous television appearances, tours and have now played over 750 live shows.

Captivating studio recordings and creative music videos showcase their talent and ingenuity. Since their first quintessential camper-van tour of Western Canada, their musical journey has spanned across such places as iconic Nashville Tennessee and the shores of Mexico and Haiti. With several industry nominations and finalist placements, their steady stream of success grew to include the grand prize in the My United Way Voice Contest 2018.

Committed to evolving and strengthening their career the couple has taken on a new persona with a modern aesthetic, refined their musical style and became Jenesia. With the same electric chemistry and energetic on-stage presence, their songs of love and grit continue to encourage and inspire.

These award-winning songwriters have been finalists in the John Lennon Songwriting Contest, L.A. Top Voice, Music City Songstar and were nominated for a GMA and multiple Edmonton Music Awards. The group has received national airplay and their single, Mexico, had its world premiere on the Strombo Show, received over 750,000 streams on Spotify alone and made the 106.5 Mountain FM's Top 60 songs for 2018. Their Mexico music video garnered 125,000+ video views online. Their passion goes far beyond making hit songs: Jenesia writes to encourage and inspire others towards justice. After surviving nearly a decade of childhood sexual abuse, Jenesia's Alexander David aims to bring awareness to the growing epidemic. Catchy melodies, memorable live shows and a unique story make Jenesia an authentic voice in pop music.

Showcase Bio

JENESIA is an Edmonton-based pop act that combines vintage and modern musicality to create catchy, emotion-evoking songs and memorable live shows. Between Jenesa's powerhouse vocals, Alexander's mastery of strings and their talent for harmonies, Jenesia is a must see. Masters of genre-blending, they offer a combination of jazz, blues, folk, and rock in their original music and unique renditions of popular classics. These award-winning songwriters have done over 750 live performances here in Canada and internationally. Jenesia won the My United Way Voice Contest 2018 and were finalists in the John Lennon Songwriting Contest, L.A. Top Voice, Music City SongStar and were nominated for a Gospel Music Award and three Edmonton Music Awards. The couple performs in multiple formats from the duo, using loop pedals and storytelling, to a full-band.