

RANYA KHARIEH

Pre-medical undergraduate at Hunter College (CUNY) majoring in Biology with a Chemistry minor. Combines undergraduate research at The Rockefeller University, clinical experience as an OB/GYN medical assistant and Weill Cornell volunteer, and community teaching through a pro-bono piano program. Dean's List and Hunter Pre-Health Certificate of Excellence honoree.

CONTACT

New York, NY
(718) 787-7092
ranyakharieh@gmail.com
www.ranyakharieh.com

EDUCATION

Hunter College, CUNY

Biology, Minor in Chemistry (New York, NY B.A.)

GPA 3.65

Honors: Dean's List · Honors Biology (research paper) · Pre-Health Certificate of Excellence

Relevant coursework: Organic Chemistry, Biochemistry, Genetics, Cell Biology, Anatomy & Physiology

SKILLS

- Laboratory: micropipetting, cell culture, sterile technique, PCR setup, lab-notebook documentation
- Clinical: vitals, patient rooming, EMR, OB/GYN procedural setup, HIPAA compliance
- Other: piano performance & instruction, mentorship, bilingual patient communication

LANGUAGES

- English (fluent)
- Arabic (conversational)

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Undergraduate Research Intern — The Rockefeller University, New York, NY

- Conduct wet-lab biomedical research using sterile technique inside biosafety cabinets
- Perform micropipetting, PCR setup, and cell culture under PI mentorship
- Document protocols, results, and troubleshooting in lab notebooks
- Authored undergraduate research paper recognized through Hunter's Honors Biology distinction

CLINICAL EXPERIENCE

Medical Assistant — OB/GYN Private Practice, New York, NY

- Room patients and record vitals (BP, HR, SpO₂, temperature)
- Prepare instruments for gynecologic and obstetric exams
- Manage EMR documentation and schedule diagnostic follow-ups
- Support patient education on women's health and reproductive care

Patient Care Volunteer — Weill Cornell Medical Center, New York, NY

- Provide non-clinical patient support and comfort rounds on hospital floors
- Assist with wayfinding and discharge logistics
- Observe attending physicians and interdisciplinary care teams

COMMUNITY SERVICE & LEADERSHIP

Piano Instructor (Pro Bono) — Grace Music Center, New York, NY

- Lead one-on-one lessons for students whose families cannot afford private instruction
- Design individualized plans across beginner and intermediate levels
- Mentor students in discipline, performance confidence, and music theory

Assistant Basketball Coach — Youth Program, New York, NY

- Co-lead practices and games for youth athletes
- Develop drills focused on fundamentals and sportsmanship
- Foster a positive, inclusive team culture

Food Bank Volunteer — People in Need Inc., New York, NY

- Sort donations and pack family food parcels
- Assist with distribution to food-insecure households across NYC