

STORMR ok Stál

(Storm or Steal – Instrumental)

Veioðr ok Víssiður

(Fight to Win)

[Verse 1]

Born of the north, with fire in my veins,
I march through the wild, through storm and the rains.

The tracks of the björn cut deep in the snow,
A beast of the mountains, my rite to bestow.

[Chorus]

Bjarnarblóð! I claim the night,
With axe and with courage, I earn my right.
The hunt is my proving, the beast is my
name,
From boy into warrior, forged in flame!

[Verse 2]

The roar shakes the pines, his shadow is near,
The thunder of battle, the trial of fear.
Blood on my axe as I strike and I stand,
The bear lies defeated, its life in my hand.

[Chorus]

Bjarnarblóð! I claim the night,
With axe and with courage, I earn my
right.
The hunt is my proving, the beast is my
name,
From boy into warrior, forged in flame!

[Bridge]

The gods bear witness, the Norns bind the thread,
The boy is no longer, the boy now is dead.
I rise as a berserk, unbroken, untamed,

Forever the mountains will echo my name!

[Chorus]

Bjarnarblóð! The saga is sung,
The fire of manhood, forever begun.
Through blood and through battle, my legend is told,
My name carved in runes, in iron and gold!

Dræfnsmæt

(A Feast for Ravens)

[Verse]

Through frost and ash we march alone
Shadows whisper of blood and bone
The wind it howls
The skies they mourn
Our kin are lost
Our wrath is sworn

[Chorus]

Raven flies high
Black as the night
Guide our blades
Lend us your sight
We are the storm
We are the tide
Vengeance is ours
We will not hide

[Verse 2]

Tracks in the snow
A crimson trail
Echoes of screams
The air is frail
Their fires burn
Their feast begins
But they will choke on their own sins

[Prechorus]

Axes rise
The moon turns red
For every life

A debt is bled

[Chorus]
Raven flies high
Black as the night
Guide our blades
Lend us your sight
We are the storm
We are the tide
Vengeance is ours
We will not hide

[Bridge]
The earth it quakes beneath our feet
Their savage cries
Our rage they meet
The clash of steel
The break of bone
We leave no soul to die alone

Berserkjǫbrú

(Berserker Bridge)

[Verse]
On the bridge of fate he stood alone
An axe in hand his heart a stone
The wind it whispered tales of fear
But he stood firm no retreat no tear

[Chorus]
One man against the tide
No shield no place to hide
The Stamford sun burned high
As the last Viking kissed the sky

[Verse 2]
Saxon swords they gleamed like fire
Their battle cries a wicked choir
But he swung wide like a storm at sea
Each step they took was met with fury

[Prechorus]
The river red the sky so blue
The bridge his throne the world in view

[Chorus]

One man against the tide
No shield no place to hide
The Stamford sun burned high
As the last Viking kissed the sky

[Bridge]
A hero's roar a warrior's grin
His axe sang songs of the North within They called him mad but he was free
A lone berserker wild as the sea

Með einu auga opnu

(With one Eye Open)

[Verse]
Ancient whispers in the night
Tell of sacrifice
Say he gave his sight
Left the mountain for the fountain
That gave him knowledge for a price
The stories say he had to pay
With his right eye

[Pre-Chorus]
The All-Father seeks all wisdom
But the All-Father can't see it all

[Chorus]
No (Oh, no)
No (Oh, no)
No (Oh, no)
No (Oh, no)
No (Oh, no)
No (Oh, no)
He sees it all
With one eye open

[Verse 2]
With ravens perched upon his shoulder
It's colder
Without an eye to see
With no Odin
What is Valhalla
Without a God to be?
The wise man sits upon the throne

And thinks of what could be
He wonders how he'd fare
If he could only see

[Pre-Chorus]
The All-Father seeks all wisdom
But the All-Father can't see it all

[Chorus]
No (Oh, no)
No (Oh, no)
No (Oh, no)
No (Oh, no)
No (Oh, no)
No (Oh, no)
He sees it all
With one eye open

Θαυδοῖ hins hvíta ása

(Death of the White God)

[Verse]
A golden god who could not fall
A heart that knew no fear at all
The world did swear
The world did bind
To never harm his flesh divine
Yet mistletoe grew silent
Sly
A shadow creeping through the sky

[Chorus]
Baldur fell
The light did fade
By his brother's hand betrayed
The arrow flew
The end was near
The brightest star now disappeared

[Verse 2]
A laughing hall
A fatal game
A brother's grief
A brother's shame
He held the bow
He did not know
The seed of sorrow he would sow

The earth it shook
The heavens wept
While Hel prepared the vow she kept

[Chorus]
Baldur fell
The light did fade
By his brother's hand betrayed
The arrow flew
The end was near
The brightest star now disappeared

Síðasta heita andadráttur II (The Last Warm Breath – Frost and Fire)

[Verse]
Leaves fall like whispers
Soft and torn
The air bites sharper
The earth feels worn
Frost creeps slow
It takes
It steals
The sun a ghost
Its warmth unreal

[Prechorus]
Axes dull
The fire fades
Winter's teeth
A cold cascade

[Chorus]
Frost and fire
The battle's call
We rise
We fall
Against it all
Lonely winds howl through the night
Will we survive the fading light

[Verse 2]
Shadows stretch
The wolves draw near

The sea is ice
It knows no fear
Our songs grow quiet
Our spirits thin
The end of fall
Where does it begin

[Prechorus]
Frozen skies
A bitter crown
The gods look down
The gods look down

[Chorus]
Frost and fire
The battle's call
We rise
We fall
Against it all
Lonely winds howl through the night
Will we survive the fading light

ÞAUSSOR II

(The Barrow II)

[Verse]
The wind it howled through the blackened trees
A whisper crawled on the midnight breeze
From the barrow deep where the dead men sleep
Their silence cracked and began to weep

[Prechorus]
Iron on iron the echoes sang
Shields were raised as the night bells rang

[Chorus]
Rise up Draugr from the earth so cold
But the fire in our hearts is twice as bold
Through the clash and the cry we stand as one
Till the cursed fall and the battle's won

[Verse 2]
The ground it split where the stones were laid

Out they came with their eyes decayed
Rust-bit swords in their bony hands
Shadows marched to reclaim their lands

[Prechorus]
A roar of thunder from Viking throats
As axes sang and the longboats moored

[Chorus]
Rise up Draugr from the earth so cold
But the fire in our hearts is twice as bold
Through the clash and the cry we stand as one
Till the cursed fall and the battle's won

Undir himnum

NORÐRS bláum

(Under Skies of Northern Blue)

[Verse]
Two young sons of the northern snows
Climbing high where the cold wind blows
Laughter rings through the mountain stones
Brothers together not yet grown

Shadows stir in the frozen night
A giant wakes in the pale moonlight
Eyes like fire with death he roars
The boys must flee through icy shores

[Chorus]
Run, run, sons of the north
The frost giant comes with thunderous wrath
Hide, strike, sons of the north
Win your glory or meet your death

[Verse]
Breath grows short, their strength is torn
They hide beneath the cliffs forlorn
The giant looms, his hand draws near But cunning hearts outmatch his fear

[Bridge]
One false step, the earth gives way

The beast is swallowed nigh today

[Pre Chorus]

They climb below with blades held fast
The giant's head is theirs at last
Back to the hall, the horns resound
All proclaim, stand on one foot

[Chorus]

Race, race, sons of the north
The blood of giants marks their path
Strong, free, sons of the north
Men made in battle, men made to last

Head of the foe on the long house wall
Their saga begins, the scowls will call
From boys to warriors, tried and true
The north remembers what courage can do

ÁRIN BER HANN BURT

(The River Carries Him Away)
(Dawn of the Dragon Tribute)

[Verse]

The queen weeps in a shroud of night
Her crown feels heavy her heart takes flight
A child cries out with a dragon's roar
A fate cursed and sealed behind the door

[Prechorus]

Ta'KAR's decree sharp as steel
The throne demands blood to seal

[Chorus]

But the river carries him away away
Through the reeds where shadows play
A tiny flame in the cold gray
The river carries him away

[Verse 2]

A maid whispers hush and holds him tight
Her hands trembling her knuckles white
She braves the guards and the palace walls

Through corridors where darkness crawls

[Chorus]

And the river carries him away away
Through the forest where wolves won't stray
To a land where no crowns weigh
The river carries him away

[Bridge]

North winds howl they sing his name
A Northman waits by the flickering flame
The child of dragons a storm untamed
A kingdom's loss a destiny claimed

NÁSTRÖND

(Shore of Corpses)

[Verse]

The river winds with poison black
A serpent's tongue will bite your back
Each step sinks deep in rotting sand
No gods to hold your trembling hand

[Chorus]

Nastrond calls
Nastrond cries
Where the wicked dwell
Where the hope all dies
Shadows scream
No escape
Forever chained to this wretched fate

[Verse 2]

The walls are bones
The roof is dread
The air is thick with what they said
Liars wail
Thieves all choke
Murdered dreams
The final joke

[Prechorus]

Ashes fall like bitter rain
Eternal frost
Eternal pain

[Chorus]

Nastrond calls

Nastrond cries

Where the wicked dwell

Where the hope all dies

Shadows scream

No escape

Forever chained to this wretched fate

[Bridge]

The serpent gnaws

The venom spreads

A thousand whispers of the dead

No dawn

No light

No final plea

This is the end

Eternally
