

THE WEEKLY CHIRP

2024-25 FINAL REPORT

THE KING WHO ALMOST ABDICATED: ORLEANS RULER WINS IT ALL

Congratulations to the newest member of the DNR Hockey Pool Winner's Circle—King of Orleans!!! Dom was the measure of excellence this season; he led the league in goals, assists, PPP, was second in SOG, and was third in wins and saves. The King earned a second place showing in the regular season and breezed through the first two rounds of the playoffs. During an extended final week, Dom led early and consistently to defeat the Dynasty and bring home the 'ship.

FINAL REPORT—CHECK ON DRAFT ANALYSIS

An Accurate Assessment when the assessment was spot on, Meh for when the analysis was ok, and Huge Miss for when the editor completely s* the bed.

- Ryan O'Reilley (162) and Gabriel Vilardi (140) are first-line, first-PP players who fell to the 13th. Outstanding value.
- Bouchard (31) in the 1st. He could be a Norris candidate this season.
- Garnet Hathaway (325) for the hits in the 13th is not a great pick. Foils is sacrificing every other category for this player. Dylan Cozens (101), Trevor Zegras (516), Gabriel Vilardi (140), and Andrei Kuzmenko (484) all went after and have 60+ point potential.
- Filip Gustavsson (58) in the 10th a high reward and low risk pick
- I'm not super high on Joseph Woll (94). Pekka-Luukonen (169), Adin Hill (75), and Tristen Jarry (217) went way later and I think are comparable goaltenders
- Hill (75) and DAccord (93) in the 7th and 13th respectively are great goalie options and even better based on where they were selected.
- I think Wyatt Johnston (55) is a good player with a lot of upside, but he is a player that could have been drafted in the following rounds
- Has to be Dylan Cozens (101) but sneakily I am going to give an honourable mention for Kochetkov (121)
- Jake Sanderson (29) in the 6th stands out as a very solid pick
- I'll beat the dead horse on Nick Suzuki (24). Too early for a centreman of his calibre.
- Nik Ehlers (115) in the 9th and Nyqvist (544) in the 13th stand out as sneaky picks of un-sexy wingers who produce at a 60+ point clip.
- Not a big Seth Jarvis (59) fan, especially in round 3. A safer play at that spot would have been Kevin Fiala (60) or John Tavares (49) who went shortly thereafter.
- Zegras (516) in the 14th has the most upside based on where he was drafted
- I don't like the Celebrini (65) pick in the second round
- Jake Guentzel (30) in the first round could be a 100pt threat playing on the top line and top PP in Tampa Bay
- Probably Nico Hischier (51) in the 4th. That type of centre was available way later in the draft.
- Nugent-Hopkins (170) in the 5th seems like good value for a dual-eligible player and exposure to the Edmonton PP
