What is Giri Pradakshina?

What is Giri Pradakshina?

- Giri = Hill, Pradakshina = Circumambulation (walking around in reverence).
- Pilgrims walk 14 km around Arunachala Hill in Tiruvannamalai, Tamil Nadu.
- It is believed that walking around the hill itself is equivalent to doing darshan of Lord Shiva in all the temples of the world.
- The practice was strongly recommended by Sri Ramana Maharshi.

Best Time for Giri Pradakshina

- Pournami (Full Moon days): Most auspicious; lakhs of devotees gather.
- Karthika Deepam festival (Nov–Dec): The most special time when a huge lamp is lit on top of Arunachala hill.
- Early Morning or Late Night: Cool weather, less crowd, peaceful experience.

How to Perform

- Start from Arunachaleswara Temple main gate.
- Walk clockwise around the hill barefoot.
- Chant “Om Arunachaleshwaraya Namah” or “Om Namah Shivaya” while walking.
- The path is well-paved, lit at night, with many shrines along the way.

Spiritual Significance

- Belief: Each step around Arunachala is equal to great punya (merit).
- Removes karmic debts, grants peace, prosperity, and ultimately liberation (moksha).
- Called “Walking Yajna” – offering oneself in humility to Lord Arunachaleswara.

Things to Keep in Mind

- ✓ Carry a small water bottle, dry fruits, or light snacks.
- ✓ Avoid plastic; carry eco-friendly bags.
- ✓ Don't rush – it's a spiritual walk, not a race.
- ✓ Elderly can do partial pradakshina by auto.
- ✓ Beware of monkeys near some temples.

Arunachalam – The Path to Moksha

📖 According to the Skanda Purana, performing Giri Pradakshina (circumambulation of Arunachala Hill) destroys sins and frees a person from the cycle of birth and death.

🕉️ Sri Ramana Maharshi also said:

👉 "One complete pradakshina around Arunachala itself is the path to Moksha."

✨ That is why this sacred place is also called Moksha Puri.
