THE LAST GREAT WAR OF THIS SLEEPING HUMANITY: CHRONICLES FROM THE END OF THE ROAD

By Javier Clemente Engonga™ for World War News TV™ | June 22, 2025

I. INTRODUCTION: THE POINT OF NO RETURN

The world has crossed a line. Not a political line, nor a military threshold, but a spiritual boundary. For decades, humanity has sleepwalked into oblivion, anesthetized by distractions, manipulated by fear, and ruled by illusions. But the illusion has cracked. In the last 72 hours, the geopolitical fabric of the world has begun to unravel in ways not seen since the atomic dawn of Hiroshima.

As missiles fall, cities burn, and alliances break, one undeniable truth rises: This is no longer about nations. This is about humanity. And it may very well be the last time this generation is allowed to sleep.

II. OPERATIONAL GENESIS: WHEN EMPIRES STRIKE FROM THE SHADOW

On June 21st, 2025, at approximately 2:30 a.m. IRST, the United States launched an unannounced, unilateral, high-precision military strike against multiple Iranian nuclear facilities. The targets included:

- Fordow Fuel Enrichment Plant (deep underground bunker)
- Natanz Nuclear Site
- Isfahan Nuclear Reactor Complex

According to preliminary intelligence, the strike utilized GBU-57A/B “Massive Ordnance Penetrators” (MOPs), dropped from B-2 Spirit stealth bombers. Simultaneously, Tomahawk cruise missiles were launched from submerged U.S. submarines in the Arabian Gulf.

This strike was not approved by the U.S. Congress nor coordinated with any formal international body. It was a preemptive declaration of kinetic supremacy.

III. IRAN RESPONDS: THE REVERSAL BEGINS

Within 36 hours, Iranian forces launched a massive retaliatory strike involving:

- 40+ surface-to-surface ballistic missiles
- Targets across Haifa, Tel Aviv, Bat Yam, and the Negev Desert
- Resulting in multiple civilian casualties and over 200 injured

The Israeli Iron Dome system intercepted some of the projectiles, but many found their targets. For the first time in a decade, central Israel was hit directly and consistently, igniting fears of a full-scale regional war.

IV. GEOSTRATEGIC DETONATION: NOT A WAR, A RECKONING

What's unfolding is not a traditional war. It's the disintegration of a geopolitical order that has operated in secret, in shadows, and behind smokescreens. But now the veils are gone.

- The United States, once the global arbiter of “peace,” has shown its true face: imperial autonomy unhinged.
- Iran, long demonized, now emerges as a sovereign actor demanding existential recognition.
- Israel, no longer shielded from the consequences of its policies, finds itself vulnerable like never before.

This is not just a conflict of missiles. It's a clash of paradigms: colonial permanence versus awakened sovereignty.

V. MEDIA WARFARE: THE DEATH OF TRUTH

Mainstream media has already begun its ritual performance:

- “Iran threatens the region.”
- “Israel is under attack.”
- “U.S. defends democracy.”

But *World War News TV*TM does not echo scripts. We report from the soul of reality. And the reality is this:

The West launched a shadow war hoping to remain unseen. Iran responded with light-speed transparency. And the world... watched in silence.

VI. THE SLEEPING HUMANITY: HYPNOTIZED BY THEATER

Even now, millions scroll through social media, oblivious. The algorithms have succeeded. Outrage fatigue has dulled the senses. And yet, behind every post, the world reorders itself.

This is not the beginning of a war. This is the beginning of the unveiling. The sacred theater of diplomacy has been torn down, and what remains is raw, unfiltered human consequence.

VII. BEHIND THE CURTAINS: THE EMPIRE'S FINAL CHESS MOVE

Let us be clear: this war was engineered. This sequence of attacks did not begin in Tehran nor in Jerusalem. It began in corporate boardrooms, intelligence bunkers, and think tanks long before missiles flew.

The intent? Restructure the global economy. Reset the petrodollar. Silence rising powers. Disarm rebellion through chaos.

But history is not on their side. For every empire that believed it could play God has found itself buried in the dust of its own arrogance.

VIII. A PLANET IN PRECARIOUS BALANCE

The global implications of this conflict are staggering:

- Oil markets have spiked 40% in two days.
- Russia and China have called for emergency UN intervention.
- The global South watches carefully, knowing they are next.
- NATO remains officially “uninvolved” but is mobilizing assets.

If escalation continues, cyber warfare, satellite attacks, and nuclear deterrence posturing will follow. This is no longer a skirmish. It's the first global kinetic spiral of the AI-era.

IX. HUMANITY AT THE CROSSROADS: FROM SURVIVAL TO SOVEREIGNTY

Let the record show: this war was not chosen by the people. It was scripted by powers who no longer represent us, nor serve our futures.

But the people now have a choice:

- Continue sleeping... and perish under fabricated narratives.
- Or awaken... and reclaim the right to truth, peace, and destiny.

The world does not need more headlines. It needs a revolution of awareness.

X. CLOSING TRANSMISSION: FROM THE EDGE OF HISTORY

To those who still believe this is about countries and flags, wake up.

To those who still think diplomacy will save us, look again.

And to those who know the truth, speak now, before speaking is forbidden.

This is World War News TV™, and this has been your broadcast from the end of the road.

We do not lie. We do not hide.

We do not belong to them.

We are the last free voice of the sleeping world.

And we are... Awake.
