Dear friend,

Let me start by saying, snowbody knows how excited I am to share this pattern with you. Shaun the Snowman isn't just your run-of-the-mill frosty fellow—he's the snowman you want to grab hot cocoa with, spill all your holiday secrets to, and maybe even make a snow angel next to. He's got charm, he's got style, and he's got a nose that would make Rudolph jealous.

Now, don't let those perfectly round little snowballs intimidate you. Shaun's not here to judge your stitches or your eggnog consumption. He's here for fun, frolic, and a little bit of festive flair on your mantle or under your tree. Whether you're crocheting in front of a roaring fire or binging every holiday movie ever made (yes, even the cheesy ones), Shaun will be your trusty companion.

So grab your yarn, your hook, and maybe a cookie (or five), and let's get started! And remember, in the immortal words of every snowman ever: chill out and enjoy the process! ❄️

Love,
Berry
