Urology Nurse

Sarah Wills-Lee RN, Dip HE Nursing (Adult), BSc (Hons), MSc

General Background

A Registered Nurse since 2004, working mainly in the acute hospital setting. Has in-depth knowledge of urology nursing having looked after patients with a variety of urological conditions, on the hospital ward and in outpatients, in both NHS and private hospitals. For the past 10 years, Sarah has worked as a clinical nurse specialist, managing the benign urology team in an NHS hospital and was lead urology clinical nurse specialist in a private hospital facility.

Sarah has been instrumental in creating standards of practice in her work areas, responsible for policy development and implementation, setting educational standards in urology nursing, providing teaching and assessment in urinary catheter insertion and management. Her current role allows her to audit standards of practice and identify areas for improvement in the prevention of catheter associated urinary tract infections.
