SciEnggJ Special Issue for APAMS 2026

Authors and presenters at APAMS 2026 will have the option to submit their research for publication in SciEnggJ, the official journal of the Philippine-American Academy of Science and Engineering. Eligible papers will undergo a rigorous peer-review process following their acceptance and presentation at APAMS 2026. SciEnggJ is a peer-reviewed, online, open-access journal indexed in Scopus. For more information, please visit: <https://scienggj.org/>

Publication Timeline

Start of paper submission: 1 May 2026
Deadline : 15 June 2026
Peer review and revisions:
June–September 2026
Target online publication of all papers:
July – December 2026

Guidelines

Guidelines for Submission of Manuscripts for Possible Inclusion in the Special Issue for the 2026 Annual PAASE Meeting and Symposium

1. All manuscripts must be submitted via ScholarOne using the following URL <https://mc04.manuscriptcentral.com/scienggj>
2. While submitting via ScholarOne, the title of the manuscript should bear the following code – [Slon2026APAMS]. For example: [Slon2026APAMS] Title of Manuscript
3. A cover letter indicating that the manuscript is submitted for possible inclusion for the SI for 2026 APAMS must be signed by all contributing authors.
4. Please follow the prescribed format as seen in <https://scienggj.org/guidelines-for-authors/>;
5. Upon favorable decision of the EIC to publish the manuscript, authors must pay the applicable discounted Publication Fee through bank transfer using the following details.

*Submissions must be original, unpublished, and not currently under review for publication elsewhere.

If the number of submissions does not reach the required volume for a standalone special issue, the accepted papers will instead be published in a regular issue of SciEnggJ.
