

Social media policy

Social media (including personal and professional websites, blogs, chat rooms and bulletin boards; social networks, such as Facebook, LinkedIn, Twitter and Instagram; video-sharing sites such as YouTube) are a common means of communication and self-expression.

It's essential that instructors, volunteers and members make informed decisions about how they use the internet, mobile phone and email communications to protect our club and students.

Everyone involved in our club has the responsibility to safeguard both in and out of the club, including communications.

It is the responsibility of all members to: -

1. Refrain from publishing comments about other clubs, students or instructors and any controversial or potentially inflammatory subjects.
2. Avoid hostile or harassing communications in any posts or other online communications. Harassment is any offensive conduct based on a person's race, sex, gender identity, national origin, colour, disability, age sexual orientation, veteran status, marital status, religion or any other status protected by law.
3. Clubs should identify all copyrighted or borrowed material with citations and links. When publishing direct paraphrased quotes, thoughts, ideas, photos or videos, give credit to the original publisher or author.
4. The club will be responsible for reviewing responses to online posts and resolving any concerns before they are posted.
5. If a blogger or any other online participant posts an inaccurate, accessory or negative comment about your club or anyone associated with the club, do not reply but seek advice from your NGB/CSP or Sport England.
6. For any student posting on their personal social media account that includes another member that is associated with the club, permission must be sought by that individual. If under 18, permission must be sought by the individual's parent/guardian.
