Elaboration: Destemming and pressing of the grapes for a 72-hour cold pre-fermentation, allowing for thorough settling and the full extraction of varietal aromas. Alcoholic fermentation takes place at 16°C for a month, achieving primary aromas of great character. The resulting wine remains in contact with its fine lees for several months, undergoing daily batonnages to achieve a high level of fatty acids that give the wine body and structure, as well as volume and smoothness.

Tasting note: Is a fresh wine with good acidity and fruity. It has a silky texture with an intense aroma and elegant body.

Pairing: Its a perfect pairing with seafood, fish, and light dishes. It is an ideal white wine to enjoy on any special occasion or to accompany light meals on warm days.
