3145 Minutes of the last Meeting

These were proposed by Cllr Evans and seconded by Cllr Butterfield-Elsey as an accurate record, and unanimously agreed.

They were signed by Cllr Coldrick.

3146. Matters Arising

There were updates about the gardens, see Minute 3147.

3147. Biodiversity Riverside

Talking Trees Orchard are supplying seedlings for the planters in Llangammarch, Cefn Gorwydd and Tirabad (invoice received); the green bin has been renewed. The Gardens team has worked hard to get the area ready for VE Day celebrations. This was timely as the gardens were also inspected for a Green Flag Award. The bench by the river has been renewed. The Section 6 forms have been received ACTION Clerk and Chairman.

3148. Sustainability Powys

This continues to be a big concern. County Cllr James has called a meeting on the 14th in Llanwrtyd. The infrastructure is not in place to allow Llandrindod to be a hub for health. The schools are another issue entirely. All present were encouraged to garner opinions from residents.

There is also a meeting at County Hall, in Llandrindod on the 20th.

3149. NextDoor, Other Correspondence received, Local updates

- residents present brought up the issue of littering on the Lake & Spa path. Sign saying 'take your litter home' to be put up. ACTION Clerk
- notification that Powys CC is working on clearing trees
- enquiry about trees on the SSSI in the river. This is for NRW to deal with. ACTION Clerk
- Thanks from Welsh Air Ambulance for the donation.

3150 Planning Matters

None

3151 Public Conveniences & Play Area

The solar lighting is installed and is effective.

Inspection information for the playground was completed. Fee has increased slightly
