

Now Hiring: Culinary Specialist

Pendaries Village | Mountain Golf Course Community

Looking for more than just a kitchen job? This is your chance to be part of something energetic, creative, and genuinely rewarding.

We're hiring a Culinary Specialist to join our team in Pendaries Village—a beautiful mountain golf course community where great food, great people, and great experiences come together. We're looking for a few exceptional individuals who thrive in a fast-paced, hands-on environment.

Why This Job Stands Out

This isn't a back-of-house role hidden from view—you'll be at the heart of the action. In our food trailer, you'll cook, create, and connect directly with guests. You'll see the impact of your work immediately, serve a steady flow of golfers, residents, and visitors, and be part of the energy that makes this community special.

What You'll Love About It

- Immediate satisfaction – Serve food directly to guests and see their reactions in real time
- Creative freedom – Contribute ideas, specials, and menu touches
- Fast-paced, fun environment – Stay engaged and energized during busy service
- Tight-knit team – Work side-by-side with a small, supportive crew
- Community connection – Get to know regulars and become part of their experience
- Scenic setting – Work in a beautiful mountain and golf course environment

What We're Looking For

- A positive, team-first attitude
- Ability to work efficiently during busy periods
- Passion for food and pride in what you serve
- Reliability and a strong work ethic
- Previous cooking or kitchen experience is helpful, but the right attitude matters most

The Experience

This is more than a job—it's a role where you'll be creating something tangible, working with your hands, staying active, and being part of a vibrant, social atmosphere. Every shift is a little different, and every day brings new faces and new energy.

If you're someone who enjoys working hard, staying busy, and being part of a fun, community-driven environment, we'd love to meet you.

Apply today and be part of something special at Pendaries Village.
