THE GREAT SURRENDER

An aerial photograph of a vast, lush green valley. The landscape is dominated by dense, vibrant green forests and rolling hills. A winding river or stream flows through the center of the valley, reflecting the sky. The sky is filled with soft, white clouds, and the overall atmosphere is serene and natural. The text is overlaid in the center of the image.

“THIS PLACE – EVER SINCE I FOUND IT –
HAS BEEN ABOUT LOVE AND DEVELOPMENT.
IF THIS LAND IS HERE TO DO ANYTHING, IT
IS TO FACILITATE THE HEALING PEOPLE ARE WILLING TO SUBMIT THEMSELVES TO.”

INTENTION

To establish a safe, self-sustaining and protected micro-community for both permanent / cooperative residents and creative passersby that is as enjoyable, healing and affordable in the present as it will be reliable, secure and liveable in the future.

LAND

Sequoia Dharma is a 80 acre parcel in the foothills of the Sierra's, nestled between Sequoia and Kings Canyon National Park, and has been sustained for the purpose of fostering opportunities for development through residency, events, retreats, art, farming and a deep, harmonious connection to mother earth.

GENEROUS OWNERSHIP & COOPERATIVE LIVING

Owners have the option of living, full-time, in their purchased units. CALIFORNIA

LOCATION

Sequoia Dharma is far enough away to escape the world and close enough to return to it.

Conveniently located just four hours from both San Francisco and Los Angeles, it is accessible in a half-day's drive from just about anywhere in California.

HISTORICAL VISION, REFINING FIRE, PRESENT REALITY

In April 2020 – after twenty years of waiting for this opportunity – Joshua Horst's house burnt to the ground, taking with it his every worldly belonging...

A phoenix is rising from those ashes, carrying with it clear instruction that now is the time to open up and cultivate the land, securing it with the infrastructure that will provide for multiple small homes, camp facilities and permanent residences usable for basic accommodations, artist retreats, remote sites for tiny homes, camp areas and/or larger, more formal developments.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Housing, retreat and event options are limitless in the Sequoia Dharma community.

From 20 to 40 foot Private, Individual and Family Sized Units, Yurts, Tipis, Container Homes, Air Streams & Developmental Camp Sites, we offer a wide variety of options to suit our guests' every need

ART

We believe the power and energy of Great Spirit moves within us when we engage in creative expression such as Art, Music, Dance, etc.

Through artist retreats, creative events, and on-site production, Sequoia Dharma is an invitation to both guests and residents to participate in this creative flow

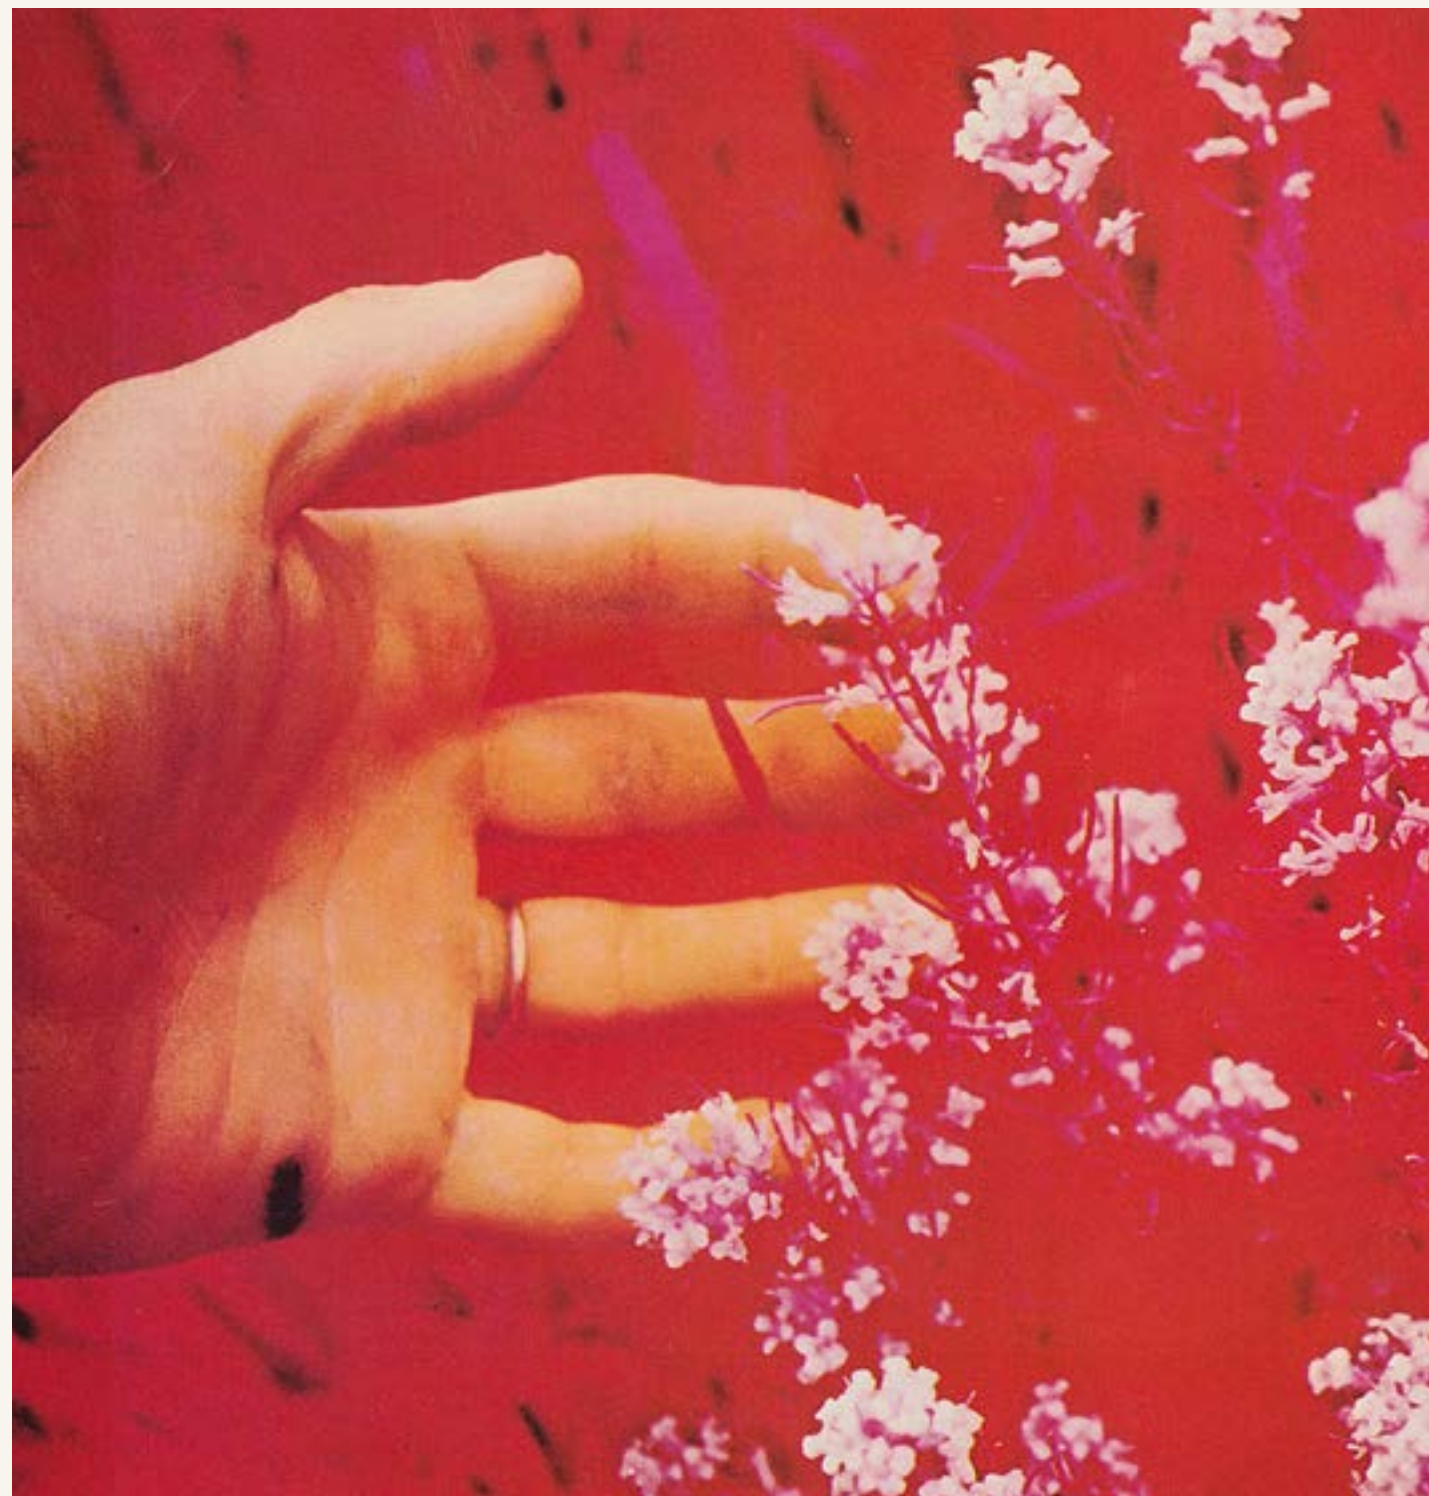

AMENITIES

There are 20+ sites on the property of special and/or spiritual interest, including two ponds, a creek, rock formations, existing structures to be transformed, organic orchards and gardens, panoramic view sites, camp sites, tiny home sites and sites for larger development of a temple or large meeting place (to name a few).

WONDER

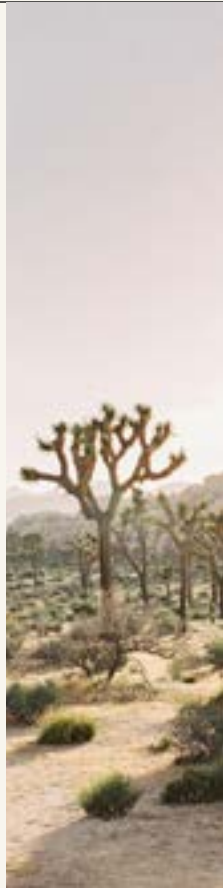

“We need to help people experience wonder. The wonder of a kernel of corn turning into a husk. People don’t experience that anymore... We want to be the light, the love and the giving.”

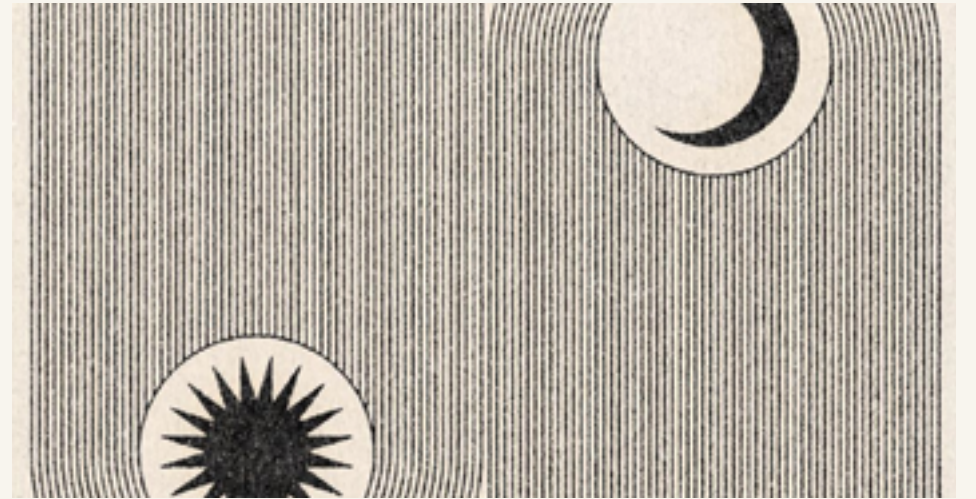

- JOSHUA HORST, PROPERTY OWNER

MOOD BOARD

HEALTH AND WELLNESS

Nature alone is medicine, but beyond the organic habitat that Sequoia Dharma is, in and of itself, we are a healing center for a variety of spiritual and interfaith retreats, yoga and meditative expression, the facilitation of wellness weekends, light, sound and ice baths, breath and body work and holistic, integrative and therapeutic practice and experience.

EVENTS

Sequoia Dharma's isolated beauty carries a magnetism all its own, calling nature-lovers and city-dwellers alike. If local weren't enough – with our team's lifetime-long experience in event-curation – we specifically foster an environment that prioritizes rest and recreation, intimacy and togetherness... no matter what your dream encounter may be.

INFLUENCERS & OPPORTUNITIES

As a destination-location backed by some of the biggest names in their respective industries, Sequoia Dharma is ripe for growth, expansion and replication opportunities.

Here are a few influennames and faces whose work you just might recognize.

PARTNERS AND FRIENDS

ADDITIONAL LAND

There is an additional 3,000 acre plot of land that butts up against Sequoia Dharma, available for purchase.

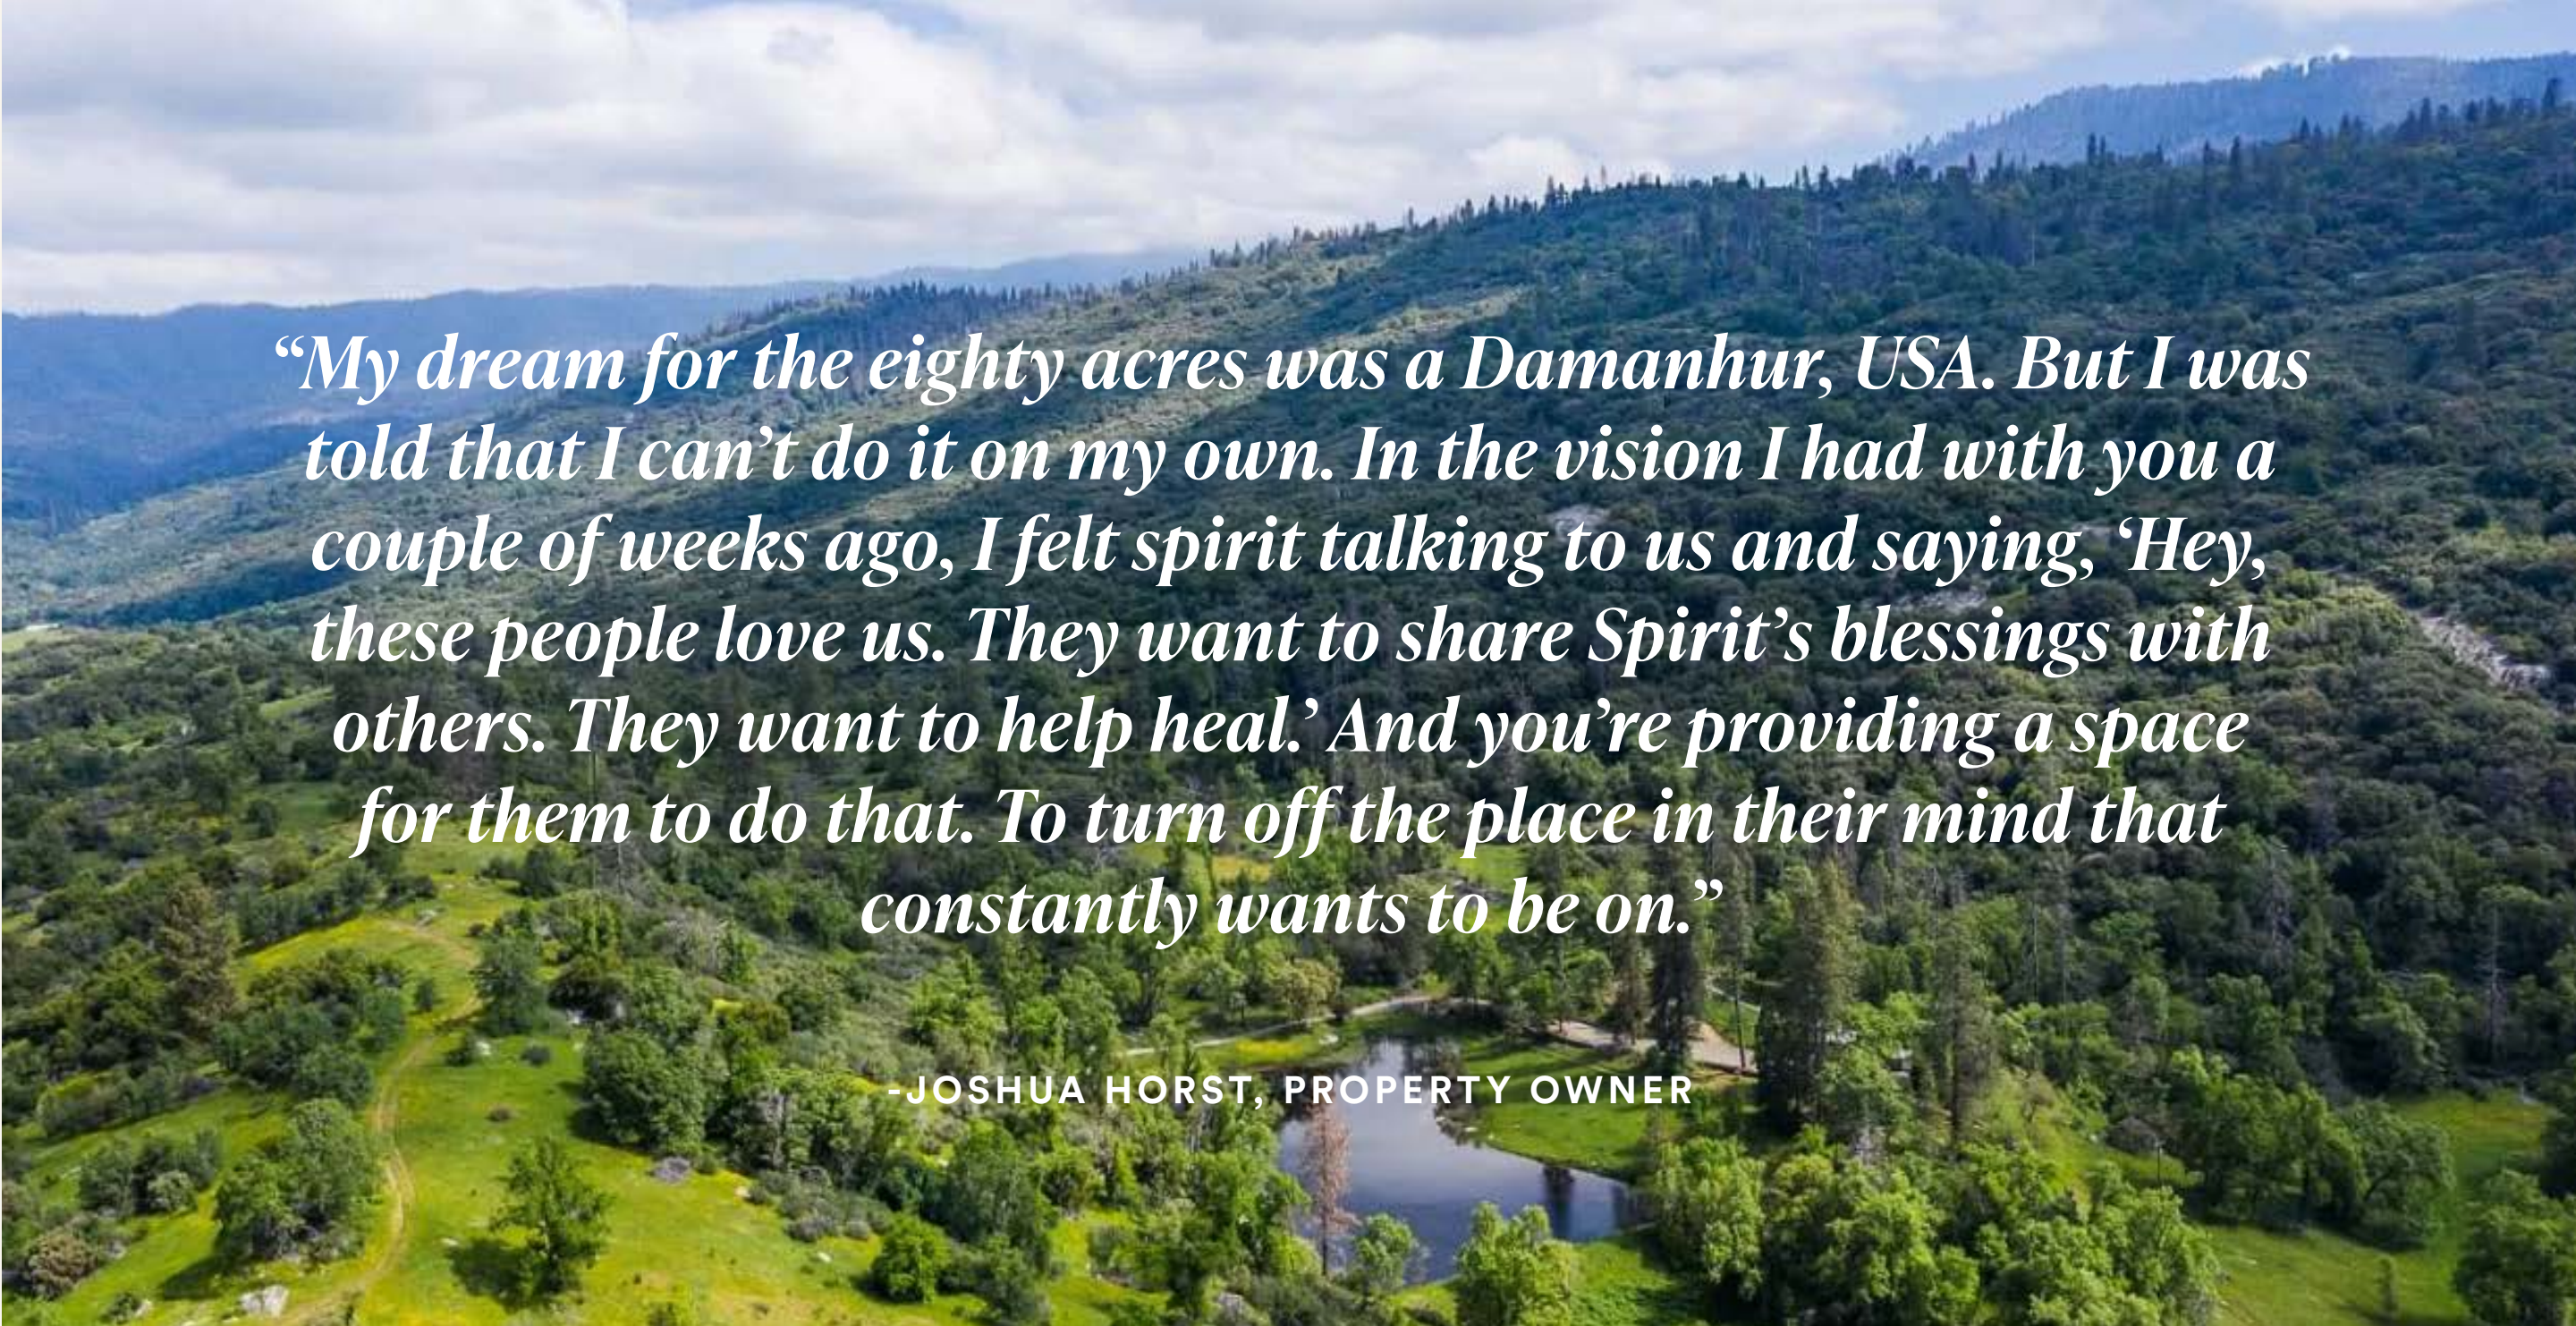

Our belief is that, through executing our proof of concept in this “pilot community,” we will be able to outgrow ourselves and further develop this vision out for a holistic society.

EXPANSION & INVESTMENT

When we develop a sustainable, shared community comprised of thirty to fifty people, our model will scale upwards, exponentially. Thirty to fifty becomes three hundred to five hundred. Three hundred to five hundred becomes three thousand to five thousand. And so it goes...

“My dream for the eighty acres was a Damanhur, USA. But I was told that I can’t do it on my own. In the vision I had with you a couple of weeks ago, I felt spirit talking to us and saying, ‘Hey, these people love us. They want to share Spirit’s blessings with others. They want to help heal.’ And you’re providing a space for them to do that. To turn off the place in their mind that constantly wants to be on.”
