

THE WATCHMAN'S CHARGE

The Commissioning of the Truth-Defencer

I do not argue to win — I speak to warn.
I do not defend an idea — I defend a Kingdom.
I do not fear opposition — I fear silence when the truth is required.

I am not driven by applause, platform, or pride.
I answer to the King of Truth.
I serve truth even when it convicts.
I expose deception, but I do not disgrace the Gospel.

I study to show myself approved.
I reason from the Word.
I respond with wisdom, gentleness, and fire.

I am a burden-bearer.
I carry the weight of truth in a world allergic to it.
I investigate the lies, expose the idols, and point to the cross.

I am not ashamed of the Gospel.
I stand in a generation that sits in compromise.
I speak where others whisper.
I love without retreating.
I preach without twisting.

For I do not contend for relevance —
I contend for revelation.

I bear the burden.
I sound the warning.
And I speak as one who will give account.
I am a Watchman.

"And I set watchmen over you, saying, 'Give heed to the sound of the trumpet!' But they said, 'We will not give heed.'"
